THEODORE SUYDAN, 2705 13th Street, North East, Washington, D. C., an employee of Colonial Parking, Incorporated, 2140 Pennsylvania Avenue, North West. SUYDAN is Day Manager of Colonial Parking Lot # 75, 3000 Connecticut Avenue, North West, Washington, D. C. (7:00AM - 6:00PM).

SUYDAN said a one half ton pickup truck, Chevrolet, black with white roof of cab bearing Virginia license tags was in storage at Lot # 75. SUYDAN said he does not know the names of the persons he met in connection with this truck. A driver for Driveaway Service Company came to Lot # 75 on March 27, 1968 and took the truck out of storage. On March 28, 1968, the above driver returned the truck to Colonial Parking, Inc. as it was not running good.

Several days later, on April 4, 5 or 6th, two men came and took the storage truck mentioned above to one of two service stations on Connecticut Avenue, North West near Porter Street to be tuned up.

SUYDAN said the following description is of a person who may be the son of the owner. SUYDAN based this opinion on statements this person made as to "Pop" would want certain items of painting equipment and ladders taken from the pick up truck and placed in another one half ton beige pick up truck, these two men brought for the purpose of removing some things from the ~~pick~~ up truck in storage.

MURKIN - CR

On 5/6/68, about 1:45 p.m., HARRY ANDERSON, 506 Hollywood Place, Los Angeles, Calif., telephonically advised he was calling long distance from a phone booth in a restaurant on Sunset Strip, Los Angeles. He said he tried to call the LA Office of the FBI but got no answer, so he put a dime in the phone and dialed the Washington, D.C., FBI number and was connected with WFO. He said he had seen a man he believed to be the one wanted for murdering MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. in this same restaurant about six hours earlier. He said he recognized the man from pictures shown on television. He said the man had on a dark suit, white shirt and yellow tie. He wore a gold ring with a diamond set in black. This man bought a bottle of whiskey, possibly Old Grand "ad, in the restaurant.

ANDERSON was asked to get the name and address of the restaurant and after reportedly looking outside the booth, he advised he could not find a name and he believed the address was 713 Sunset Strip. He was asked if there was a phone number where he could be reached, as he said he had no phone, and he said his grandfather, THOMAS JOHNSON, lived next door to him at either 504 or 508 Hollywood Place, and had phone number 721-8620. At this point, ANDERSON advised the above described man had just reentered the restaurant and was sitting near the booth. He said he could see a shoulder holster and a pistol butt under the man's coat. He asked about a $100,000 reward he had heard about for this man. When asked what time it was in LA, ANDERSON was evasive, and he was asked to read the area code and number in the phone booth, and he read it as 602-772-5160. He was reminded this was the area code for Arizona and he was again evasive. He was given the phone number of the LA Office and instructed to call immediately, which he promised to do.

Bureau, LA and ME and PX advised by teletype, mentioning this could be a crank call.

DATE: 5/7
4/22/68

FROM : SA WALTER E. THOMAS

SUBJECT: MURKIN - CR

The following investigation was conducted by SA WALTER E. THOMAS on this date, pursuant to information which was telephonically furnished on 4/20/68 by JONATHAN SCHUMAN, 5109 Connecticut Ave., N.W., Apt. 2. It is noted that SCHUMAN indicated that he had seen a person driving a 1957 Ford Fairlane, green and white in color, bearing 1968 D. C. tag [REDACTED] travelling in the vicinity of his apartment.

On 4/22/68, SA WALTER E. THOMAS checked the records of the DMV, WDC, and it was noted therein that D. C. current tags 636-232 were listed to ~~DARRELL GILLINGWATER~~, 3606 Porter St., N.W., WDC for a 1959 Ford 2 door Hardtop, bearing VIN H 9EW141762.

On 4/22/68, SA WALTER E. THOMAS showed a photograph of the subject to ALICE WALBURN, and her daughter, VIVIAN WALBURN, 3606 Porter St., N.W., and each advised that the person named DARRELL GILLINGWATER, who lived at that address was not the same person as JAMES EARL RAY.

She advised that GILLINGWATER had lived at that address since July or August of 1967. She said that he worked at Peoples Drug Store, and worked as an advertising employee. She said that he is in his middle 30's, that he is 6' tall, weighs 170 pounds, has brown hair, and eyes, color not known.

She said that his mother lives in the Woodner, 3636 16th St N.W.

Both said that on 4/4/68, they recalled GILLINGWATER coming into the address at about 10 P.M.

Mrs. WALBURN said that GILLINGWATER no longer lives at her address, and said that he was going to Florida where he moved out.

On 4/23/68, H. L. TOMLINSON, Assistant Advertising Manager, Peoples Drug Stores, 60 Florida Ave., N.E., advised SA WALTER E. THOMAS that DARRELL GILLINGWATER has left town because of an aunt who is sick, and that he has no forwarding address. He said that he does not know the forwarding address of GILLINGWATER, and that GILLINGWATER's mother went with him, so that he could not suggest anyone who would know how to contact him at this time. He said that he has seen the picture of JAMES EARL RAY, and that GILLINGWATER does not resemble him in any way. He said that he would have GILLINGWATER call agent Thomas, when Gillingwater returns to Washington, D.C. on 4/29/68.

On May 7, 1968, Mr. DARRELL GILLINGWATER, 3510 16th St., N.W., telephonically contacted SA THOMAS. He said that he has seen the information about JAMES EARL RAY, and he said that no-one fitting the description of RAY has used his vehicle within the pertinent time.

This matter, therefore, is considered as handled, with negative results.

Biggest Search in History?

Ray Hunt Stumps FBI

By THOMAS TALBURT
Scripps-Howard Staff Writer

What is probably the biggest manhunt in history — the search for the slayer of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. — runs into a blank wall on Peachtree-st in Atlanta. The trail ends there.

For four weeks, the will-o'-the-wisp suspect has eluded one of the massive manhunts since dropping from sight in Atlanta on April 5 — the day after Dr. King was shot on a Memphis motel balcony.

Authorities in at least half a dozen other countries also are on the lookout for the elusive man first identified under his alias, Eric Starvo Galt, and later identified by the FBI as James Earl Ray, a drifter and habitual criminal who escaped from the Missouri State Penitentiary on April 23, 1967.

TRAIL ENDS

Altho the FBI has branded Ray its No. 1 quarry and blanketed the nation with "wanted" posters bearing his picture, Ray's trail ends with the recollections of two Atlanta cab drivers who identified him first from sketches, and later from a photograph, as the man they picked up as a passenger April 5.

One of the drivers said he picked up Ray in downtown Atlanta and drove him only two blocks to 12th and Peachtree Streets, when Ray suddenly asked to be let out. The driver said he remembered Ray because of the briefness of his trip.

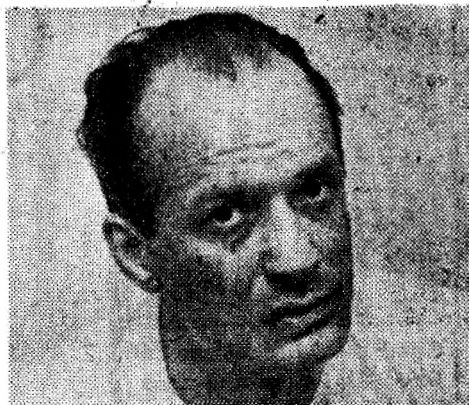

The second driver, who like the first, is employed by the Atlanta Million Cab Co., said that on the evening of April 5 he drove Ray to the corner of 13th street and Crescent avenue, a block west of Peachtree street.

"That's the last known, verified trace of the man we want," a Federal official said today.

THOUSANDS OF TIPS

Reports that Ray was seen later the night of April 5 in a shabby Atlanta nightclub have not been verified — nor have the thousands of tips which have flooded the FBI from citizens eager to aid the hunt for Dr. King's killer.

The FBI has deduced that Ray drove the ap-

Jerry Ray, 32, the brother of James Earl Ray, the subject of a world-wide manhunt in the sniper-slashing of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., yesterday issued a plea in Chicago that his brother give himself up. "If he is still alive I urge him to surrender himself to the FBI," Mr. Ray said. "If he's still alive the FBI is going to get him, you can be sure of that."

proximately 450 miles from Memphis to Atlanta after Dr. King was slain the evening of April 4. A white Mustang, matching one spotted leaving the scene of Dr. King's murder and bearing license tags issued to Eric Starvo Galt, was abandoned in Atlanta shortly after dawn on April 5.

The theory that Dr. King's assassin was aided in actually committing the act now is questioned by some Federal officials.

Attorney General Ramsey Clark, who ruled out a conspiracy shortly after Dr. King was killed, has said again recently that there is reason to believe the assassination "was the work of one man."

The fact the FBI charged Ray, under his assumed name of Galt, of conspiring with an "alleged brother" against Dr. King, was seen as legal device to enable the FBI to take over the murder investigation — normally a state function.

Search for King's assassin now spreads into Australia

(UPI)

Australia has been asked by the FBI to make a "routine check" of whether James Earl Ray, sought in the murder of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., has applied for a visa to go to that country, an embassy official said.

The official emphasized, however, that "Australian authorities have no evidence at all that the person concerned (Ray) is in Australia."

American sources also underscored the routine nature of the request. They said it would be logical to assume that similar requests either had or would be made of other nations in which Ray might seek refuge. The FBI had no comment on the embassy official's statement.

Ray, also known under the alias of Eric Starvo

Galt, has been the target of a widespread search since Dr. King was shot to death as he stood on the balcony of a Memphis, Tenn. motel. He was felled by a rifle bullet believed to have been fired from a nearby rooming house.

RAY, WHO has been charged with murder by Memphis officials, was added to the FBI's most wanted list after a check of more than 53,000 fingerprints disclosed that prints found in a bathroom of the rooming house were identical to those of the wanted man. He also faces a federal conspiracy charge.

Ray escaped from Missouri state penitentiary in April, 1967, while serving a 20-year sentence for armed robbery and auto theft.

The Australian embassy

official said:

"At the request of the FBI, Australian authorities are doing a routine check of records to see if there has been a visa application for Australia by the person for whom a federal warrant is outstanding in connection with the death of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr."

Ray's Brother Makes Appeal, Disappears

CHICAGO (AP) — Jerry Ray, brother of the man brought on a charge of murdering the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., has quit his job at a suburban golf club and disappeared, the Chicago Tribune said today.

Ray's disappearance was reported a few hours after he appealed through an interview with another Chicago newspaper, the Sun-Times, for his brother, James Earl Ray, to surrender. "If he is still alive."

The Tribune quoted an official at the Sportsman Country Club near Northbrook as saying that Jerry Ray, 32, quit his job as a maintenance man a day after his photograph appeared in a national magazine.

"We don't know where he went," he said. "I guess he got tired of being interviewed."

Memorandum

TO : SAC, WFO (44-703)

DATE: 5/8/68

FROM : SA ROBERT L. KUHN

SUBJECT: MURKIN - CR

On 5/8/68, Mr. JOHN SANDERS, 3310 Brothers Place, SE., Washington, D. C., telephonically furnished the following information:

Approximately one week prior to the assassination of MARTIN LUTHER KING, a man closely resembling the photograph of JAMES EARL RAY printed in yesterday's newspapers, came to SANDERS' home at 3310 Brothers Place, S.E. The man inquired about renting an apartment from SANDERS. The man stated he had seen an advertisement regarding the apartment in the newspaper supposedly placed by a Shelton Real Estate Company. SANDERS had never seen the man before and has not seen him since. SANDERS told the man he did not have an apartment and the man left without furnishing any information about himself or where he could be located. SANDERS said the man fit the description of JAMES EARL RAY that appeared in the newspaper regarding age, height, weight and other visible features.

SANDERS could furnish no further information about the man.
