F.B.I. ACCUSES GALT OF A CONSPIRACY IN DR. KING SLAYING

Alleges a Plot With Man
He Said Was a Brother to Violate Victim's Rights

FUGITIVE WARRANT OUT

Hoover Places Suspect in Memphis at Time of Killing

Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, April 17 —
The Federal Bureau of Investigation issued a fugitive warrant today charging Eric Starvo Galt, described as a 36-year-old "loner," with conspiracy in the slaying of the Rev.
Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Dr. King's assassin has been sought since the civil rights leader was killed by a rifle bullet on the balcony of the Lorraine Motel in Memphis on April 4.

The F.B.I. said Galt conspired beginning about March 29 with a man "whom he alleged to be his brother" to "injure, oppress, threaten or intimidate" Dr. King. The conspiracy continued until about April 5, the agency said.

Attorney General Ramsey Clark announced that Galt was being sought as a fugitive on the charge of having conspired to violate Dr. King's civil rights, in violation of Title 18, Section 241, of the United States Code.

The maximum penalty on conviction under this law is a $5,000 fine and a 10-year prison sentence.

Announcement by Hoover

An announcement by J. Edgar Hoover, F.B.I. director, placed Galt in Memphis at the time of the killing and said he then left for Atlanta.

It said that Galt, "who has used the names of John Willard and Harvey Lowmyer in the past," ~~owned the white 1966~~
Mustang automobile bearing Alabama license plates that was found abandoned in Atlanta one week after the assassination.

John Willard was the name given in Memphis by a man

GALT IS ACCUSED OF A CONSPIRACY

who fled from a rooming house near the Lorraine Motel just after Dr. King was shot. The man had taken a room in the house, and the fatal shot is believed to have been fired from a bathroom window there.

There was no explanation of the Lowmyer alias.

The Mustang found in Atlanta resembled one seen speeding away from the assassination area.

Sources close to investigators in Memphis said that the Memphis police had almost run Galt down as they went to the murder scene.

The Federal warrant was issued in Birmingham, Ala., where Mr. Hoover said that a .30-'06-caliber rifle equipped with a telescopic sight had been found near a rooming house on South Main Street in Memphis immediately after the shooting. He said an F. B. I. agent had determined that that rifle and a telescopic sight was bought from a gun dealer in Birmingham on March 30.

Suspect Described

The announcement did not directly link Galt to the rifle found in Memphis or say that the .30-'06 was the weapon that killed Dr. King.

Galt was described as 5 feet 8 to 5 feet 11 inches tall, weighing between 160 and 175 pounds and having "brush-cut" brown hair and blue eyes.

"He is said to be a neat dresser and has a medium build," the F.B.I. said.

Those who have met him describe him as a loner and say his "language and diction have a 'rural' quality and suggest that he probably does not have a high degree of education," the agency said.

Galt was said to like vodka, beer and Western and country music and to have a nervous habit of occasionally pulling at an ear lobe, the F.B.I. added.

"His left ear protrudes farther from his head than his right ear," it said.

The F.B.I. released two photographs of Galt, one with his eyes closed and another containing a notation on the back: "Eyes drawn in by F.B.I. artist."

The man whom the agency said Galt had alleged was his brother was not further identified in the announcement here.

Galt traveled extensively in this country and went to Mexico after he bought the white Mustang from a private citizen in Birmingham last Aug. 30, Mr. Hoover said. The car's odometer showed the Mustang had been driven more than 19,000 miles since the purchase, the F.B.I. director said.

Galt's vehicle in the Mustang included tags of Los Angeles, New Orleans, Birmingham and Mexico as well as Memphis and Atlanta," the F.B.I. announcement said.

The suspect left Los Angeles last Dec. 15, drove to New Orleans and "claimed he contacted either an engineering firm or a contracting firm," according to the agency.

He left New Orleans four days later and arrived in Los Angeles on Dec. 21. The agency said.

There was no indication why he had been in touch with the company.

Took Bartending Course

While he was in Los Angeles, Galt "took a course at a school of bartending and was graduated on March 2, 1968," the agency said.

The announcement did not attempt to trace Galt's whereabouts day by day or even week by week. But it placed him in New Orleans in 1964 and 1965, in Birmingham last September and October and in Long Beach, Calif., from last December until last February by saying he took dancing lessons in those places at those times.

"He is said to be an avid dancer," the announcement said.

It also said intensive investigation by the F.B.I. had disclosed that Galt "has claimed to have been employed as a cook on Mississippi River vessels and as a merchant seaman."

Galt should be considered "armed and dangerous" and any information about him should be furnished immediately to the nearest F.B.I. office, the announcement added.

The F.B.I. refused to say where it got Galt's photograph. The pictures show him in a dark suit and a neat, dark bow tie; he might have been wearing a tuxedo at the time. One picture appeared to have been cut out and placed on a different background, as though it might have been taken from a group picture, such as one taken at a nightclub.

Sketch Shown Previously

The photographs were the first to be connected with the case, although F.B.I. agents have been showing a full-face sketch of a suspect to hundreds of persons all through the South.

There was nothing in today's statements to indicate what role the F.B.I. thought the alleged other conspirator played or whether there might be still other suspected conspirators.

Galt's name was first publicly linked with the King murder on April 11, when an F.B.I. bulletin was released in Florida, apparently by mistake, and later withdrawn. The bulletin asked that Galt be located for questioning.

On April 12 the Mustang was found in Atlanta. It apparently had been parked there since about 12 hours after the murder. It was impounded after residents of the housing development where it was found noted that it matched the description of the car wanted in the murder.

The section of the United States Code under which Galt is accused states:

"If two or more persons conspire to injure, oppress, threaten, or intimidate any citizen in the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege secured to him by the Constitution or laws of the United States, or because of his having so exercised the same; or

"If two or more persons go in disguise on the highway, or on the premises of another, with intent to prevent or hinder his free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege so secured—

"They shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned not more than 10 years, or both."

Memphis Hopes to Try Galt

MEMPHIS, April 17 (UPI)—Tennessee authorities indicated tonight that they would file murder charges in the assassination of Dr. King.

"That will be our immediate consideration," Memphis Fire and Police Director Frank Holloman said in answer to a question of whether there were plans to issue a warrant for the arrest of Galt.

"We look forward to the apprehension of this individual and his ultimate return to Memphis for trial for the murder of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.," Mr. Holloman said.

He would not elaborate on the statement.

GILLIAM feels that if the JIM RAY she knows is identical with MURKIN subject that he possibly could use this area as hideout.

GILLIAM relates that her mother, VERA BROOKE, 6791 San Diego Road, Buena Park, California, would know owner's identity of this property.

Inasmuch as referenced teletype indicates that JAMES EARL RAY was incarcerated at the Missouri State Penitentiary, Jefferson City, Mo., since March 17, 1960, and allegedly confined to that Institution until time of his escape, 4/23/67, this is being furnished to Memphis and Kansas City for info purposes. Possibility exists that "JIM RAY" individual GILLIAM refers to is a possible relative of subject JAMES EARL RAY.

Kansas City from file review determine if this is area of RAY's background and determine if this information has significance to captioned case.

No lead is being set forth for the Los Angeles Division at this time because of the limited information available to WFO concerning subject this case.

FBI Charges Galt 'Brothers'

King's Death 'Conspiracy'

By THOMAS TALBURT

Staff Writer

The FBI has fleshed in the phantom figure of Eric Starvo Galt and charged him with conspiracy in the assassination of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

But in filing a warrant for Mr. Galt's arrest in Birmingham, Ala., the FBI left unanswered these key questions in the case:

Where is Mr. Galt?

Who is the mysterious suspected conspirator and what role did he play? The FBI complaint says only that Mr. Galt "and an individual whom he alleged to be his brother" entered into a conspiracy against Dr. King.

WHERE FROM?

Where did the FBI obtain its information about Mr. Galt and where did it get the pictures of him it released last night?

In what appeared to be the first big break in the murder, Attorney General Ramsey Clark described Mr. Galt as 36 years old, white, a neat dresser, a man of apparently limited education with a preference for vodka and beer, and Western and country music.

He has a nervous habit of occasionally pulling at an ear lobe with his hand, Mr. Clark reported, and persons who have met Mr. Galt described him as a loner.

He wears his brown hair in a brush cut, has a "straight and narrow" nose. He's said to be an avid dancer and took dancing lessons in New Orleans, Birmingham and Long Beach, Calif., at intervals between 1964 and February of this year.

He has told people he has been employed as a cook on Mississippi river boats and as a merchant seaman. He had attended a school for bartenders in Los Angeles early this year and was graduated March 2.

BOUGHT RIFLE

The FBI charges the conspiracy against Dr. King began in Birmingham March 29 and that the next day Mr. Galt purchased a rifle and a telescopic sight there.

The complaint also says the conspiracy continued until "on or about" April 5 — the day after Dr. King was gunned down on a Memphis motel balcony. This appeared to suggest that Mr. Galt's unidentified "brother" may have assisted in his getaway by acting as a decoy or leaving false leads for police after Dr. King was shot.

While FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said a rifle with telescopic sight was found near the rooming house from which Dr. King's assassin fired the fatal shot, the FBI did not specifically identify the rifle as the murder weapon.

Mr. Hoover did identify Mr. Galt as the owner of a 1966 white Mustang bearing Alabama license plates found abandoned in Atlanta April 11. A white Mustang was spotted leaving the murder scene.

19,000 MILES

The Mustang found in Atlanta had been driven more than 19,000 miles since last August when Mr. Galt bought it in Birmingham, Mr. Hoover said. It had been to Los Angeles, New Orleans, Birmingham and Mexico, as well as Memphis and Atlanta, he said.

Viewed as the most intriguing aspect of the case now was the emergence of the suspected conspirator Mr. Galt obviously told someone was his brother.

Soon after Dr. King's murder, Mr. Clark said it appeared to be the work of one man and virtually ruled out a conspiracy.

The complaint against Mr. Galt specifically charges Mr. Galt and the "brother" with conspiring to injure, oppress, threaten, or intimidate Dr. King in his right to travel freely from state to state.

10-YEAR TERM

Justice Department officials said this law carries only a 10-year prison sentence and $5000 fine on conviction, but noted Mr. Clark has indicated that when Dr. King's slayer is found, he would be turned over to Tennessee authorities for trial on a murder charge.

The new civil rights law, had it been enacted before Dr. King's slaying, would have permitted the Justice Department to bring a Federal murder charge against the assassin. As it turned out, it was the King assassination that spurred Congress to pass the law.

The FBI said Mr. Galt has used the names of Harvey Lowmyer and John Willard — the name Dr. King's suspected killer used when he checked into the rooming house across from Dr. King's motel.

Mr. Galt's birthplace was not revealed.

SA WARREN L. ROWLANDS

STOKLEY CARMICHAEL IS-RM

On this date Mr. BERNARD RESNICK, owner, Admiral Limousine Service, 623 Elm Street, Takoma Park, Maryland, telephonically contacted WFO. He stated that he runs this limousine service out of his home, and at the time he called was working and did not have his records with him. He stated that he could be contacted at 270-3233 on a 24 hour basis, and would be glad to furnish any details or information that he has in his records.

RESNICK stated that approximately one week prior to the assassination of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. he received a call about midnight from MARIAN MAKEBA to make a reservation for the following date for a limousine to be at 1800 12th Street NW, WDC, at 10am. RESNICK did not personally chauffeur the limousine the next day, however the driver picked up STOKLEY CARMICHAEL at the 12th Street address and took him to Friendship airport where CARMICHAEL was believed to catch a plane for California. MAKEBA accompanied CARMICHAEL to the airport.

RESNICK advised that he has read about the search for KING's killer in the California area, and thought that possibly there might be some connection between the trip by CARMICHAEL and the killing.

RESNICK said the best time to contact him would be in the evening, and he should be called to make certain he is home and available if anyone would like to go to his home to talk with him.
