104-10129-10382

PHIL M. CANALE JR. The prosecutor

W. PRESTON BATTLE The judge

HAS NO OBJECTION TO DECLASSIFICATION AND/OR HELEASE OF THIS DOCUME

JAMES EARL RAY The defendant

Ray's Trial to Open Tuesday In the Slaying of Dr. King and - in one of the strangest geles next month. cases on record - the question the civil rights leader is almost focus on the first man to face secondary.

slaying of King the isolated violent act of one man, as the thief and escaped robber raises state charges, or the murderous the big questions: fruition of a conspiratorial plot, with Ray set up as a decoy, as the defense contends?

Three times in five years an assassin's bullets have cut down so, who were the conspirators national leaders - first Presi-and where are they now? dent John F. Kennedy, then Martin Luther King, then Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

This is the first time the alleged killer has been brought to in that courtroom has to be retrial.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) - of slaying President Kennedy, chances; it is determined that James Earl Ray goes on trial Thesday for the slaying April 4 of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., in another King, Jr., in another King, Jr., due to come to trial in Los An-the state of the statement of the statemen

The result is that all the nagof whether he did or did not kill ging doubts about "plot" now the assassination charge in open The focal question is: Was the court, a man whose background as habitual criminal, bumbling

Why would a man like James Earl Ray murder such a man as Martin Luther King?

Was there a conspiracy and if There is a small television camera in the hall outside County Courtroom 3, where the trial will be held. Anybody who goes corded, picture and voice, by a Lee Harvey Oswald, accused camera. Memphis is not taking whether Ray was the sniper who just before dusk, at 6:01 p.m. CST Thursday, April 4, put a .30-36 caliber rifle slug through the throat of the Nobel peace prize winner. A decision is not likely before Christmas.

Whether the question of conspiracy will be answered may depend on Ray himself, if he takes the stand, if he knows anything and, if he does, whether he will talk.

Clark Sees No Plot

The government says there is no puzzle to unravel. Aby Gen. Ramsey Clark assured the world the day after King was shot that one man, acting alone, was responsible.

Prosecutor Phil Canale, the Shelby County (Memphis) attorney general who has not argued to a jury in seven years, has had his case drawn for him by the Justice Department and the FBL.

That case is this:

Ray, alias Eric Starvo Galt, a man with no known history of deep or violent racial prejudice, acting alone for a motive-yet unknown, shot King as the advocate of nonviolence stood on the second-floor balcony of black-owned Lorraine Motel in downtown Memphis.

But chief defense counsel Arthur J. Hanes Sr., 51, will tell the jury he intends to prove a "Communist, left-wing conspira-

