1 - signed statement
of above.

56-156-1a26

Los Angeles, California
June 6, 1968

I, Enrique Rabago, make the following free and voluntary statement to Paul Chamberlain, Jr. and Thomas J. Bevans, who have identified themselves to me as Special Agents of the FBI.

I am an American citizen born in San Antonio, Texas, September 25, 1926 and have attended two years of high school in Mexico. I can read and write in the English language.

On June 4, 1968, I travelled to the Ambassador Hotel on Wilshire Boulevard in Los Angeles to observe the activities at the Kennedy election headquarters. I was accompanied on this trip by my friend, Humphrey Otto Cordero. We arrived in the vicinity of the Ambassador Hotel at approximately 9:00 - 9:30 p.m., June 4, 1968, parked several blocks from the hotel and walked to the main entrance to the Kennedy headquarters.

I did not feel like going in to the building in that I was not dressed in a suit, but was wearing casual clothing, however, my friend, Humphrey Cordero, urged me to go in with him. We entered the main lobby of the hotel and after approximately ten minutes I became separated from

E. R.

Cordero due to the large number of people standing around.

I could not see Humphrey Cordero and I, therefore, walked to the porch area at the front of the main entrance on Seventh Street hoping that he would find me there. Upon arriving on the front porch, I noticed a great many people standing there talking. I started talking to several of these people in a general conversation concerning the election returns and it was at this time that I first observed an individual whom I later learned to be identical with Sirhan Bishara Sirhan from pictures in the "Los Angeles Herald Examiner" as well as local television programs. This individual was standing on the porch alone sipping from a drink and I engaged him in conversation concerning the election. I said to him "Are we going to win?" and he answered "I think we are going to win." At this time I said to him "I don't know, Mc Carthy is ahead now" and he replied "Don't worry about him if he doesn't win, that son of a bitch, he's a millionaire and he doesn't need to win. He just wants to go to the White House, but even if he wins he's not going to do anything for you or for me or for any of the poor people." This man continued talking to me and he told me that ^{ER}Kennedy did not care about any poor people and merely sought to gain the Presidency for personal reasons. ^{ER}I feel that this man was becoming very disgusted with Mr. Kennedy and at this time told me that ^{ER}Kennedy was going to buy the Presidency. ^{ER}

At this point I became disgusted with this individual's opinions and was about to walk away when my friend, Humphrey Cordero, arrived. Humphrey Cordero asked me where I had been and I told him I had become lost in the crowd and had come to the porch to wait for him. Humphrey said to me "Let's go back into the lobby" and I told him that I did not want to return because my clothes were not good enough. At this point Humphrey turned to the man I later recognized from the "Los Angeles Herald Examiner" to be the man accused of assaulting Robert Kennedy and beckoned to me saying "Look at my friend, he doesn't want to go in because of his clothing. What do you think of that?" To this comment the man in question replied "We're voters. We can go in there like this. I just returned from the Rafferty headquarters." At this time he told Humphrey Cordero about an incident that occurred to him inside the Rafferty campaign room. He told Humphrey that he had gone in to order a drink and that the people in there stared at him and obviously did not like him because of his clothing. He also told Humphrey that these "big wheels" watched him as he ordered a drink from the hostess and he continued by telling Cordero that he^{EA.} showed them^{EA.} by paying for his drink with a $20.00 bill and leaving the change for the hostess. He told Humphrey, at this point, that^{EA.} "it is the money you have got that counts, not the way you look."^{EA.} I cannot positively quote the above conversation between Cordero and this man because at the same time I was watching a television monitor concerning the election results.

At this point I walked into the main lobby to be closer to the television set and this was the last time I saw the man in question. This individual was positively alone when I saw him and at no time did I see him talking with anyone but Humphrey Cordero or myself. I definitely got the impression from talking with this man that he did not like Mr. Kennedy personally because of the fact that he was a millionaire.

The entire length of my conversation with this man was approximately five minutes.

Humphrey Cordero and I stayed at the campaign headquarters until approximately 10:15 or 10:30 p.m. at which time we left going in my panel truck to our homes.

Later that evening I first heard of the shooting of Robert Kennedy on the radio, but it was not until the next day that I first saw a television picture of the man who is accused of shooting Mr. Kennedy. I recognized this man to be the same as the man I had spoken to at the Ambassador Hotel on the previous evening. Later this same day, June 5, 1968, I again saw this man's picture on the front page of the "Los Angeles Herald Examiner" identified as the individual accused of assaulting Robert Kennedy. I first saw this paper when Humphrey Cordero purchased it and brought it to my truck. Immediately after seeing this picture and discussing the situation, Humphrey Cordero and I drove to the Los Angeles Office of the FBI, arriving at approximately 5:00 - 5:30 p.m. where we were interviewed by Special Agent Paul Chamberlain, Jr.

Special Agent Chamberlain has shown me photographs of ^{SIX} ~~seven~~ male caucasians and from these pictures I picked the photograph of an individual whom I am certain was the individual that I had talked to on the night of June 4, 1968 at the Ambassador Hotel.

E.R.

To the best of my memory the man I talked with at the Ambassador Hotel can be described as:

Male

Caucasian

Height - between 5'4" - 5'5"

Weight - 120 - 130 lbs.

Complexion - dark

Hair - dark, very kinky

Age - early 20s

Characteristics - appeared to be of Mexican origin;

appeared to be educated, but arrogant

Los Angeles, California
June 6, 1968

I, Humphrey Otto Cordero, make the following free and voluntary statement to Paul Chamberlain, Jr. and Thomas J. Bevans who have identified themselves to me as Special Agents of the FBI.

I was born in New York City, New York, April 4, 1934 and have attended three years of high school at Dewitt Clinton High School, New York, New York. I am able to read and write English fluently.

On the evening of June 4, 1968, I travelled with my friend, Enrique Rabago, in his panel truck to the vicinity of the Ambassador Hotel on Wilshire Boulevard. We went to the Ambassador to observe the activities there in connection with the election returns concerning Robert Kennedy. We arrived at the Ambassador Hotel at approximately 9:00 - 9:30 p.m. after parking some two blocks away. We entered the front entrance to the Kennedy campaign headquarters and after approximately ten minutes I became separated from my friend, Enrique Rabago, because of the large number of people in the crowd. I looked for Enrique for about five minutes at which time I walked to the porch area at the front entrance where I saw Enrique talking to another individual who was sipping a drink. I walked up to Enrique and asked him where he had been. He told me he had become separated by the crowd and had walked to the front door to see if he could find me.

I told Enrique to come with me and we would go back into the lobby, but he objected saying that he was not properly dressed to return inside in that he was only wearing casual clothes. I told him "Look at the guy standing next to you, he's dressed in the same manner that we are." At this time this individual said words to the effect that "why shouldn't we go in there, we're putting them in office." He also said "I just came from the Rafferty campaign center and lounge. As I walked in the hostess looked down at me because they were dressed like millionaires and I was dressed like this. I took out a $20.00 bill, bought a drink (indicating the one in his hand) and left her the change." At this point he said "Then she was all smiles. It goes to show you, it's not how you look, it's what you got." He appeared to me to be very aggravated by the fact that he was looked down upon by these "rich people" and he said that these "rich people looked at me as if I was dirt." He implied that although everyone in there looked to be a millionaire, he had "showed them" by his actions involving the $20.00 bill.

I got the impression during my conversation with this man that he was discontented and especially disgruntled with "rich people", particularly involving the incident at the Rafferty lounge.

My conversation with this man lasted only a few minutes and the conversation ended when Enrique Rabago and I followed by this man returned into the lobby of the Ambassador to watch the election results on the television monitor. I, at no time, observed this man speaking to anyone but myself and Rabago. After parting with this individual I did not see him again during the evening. Rabago and I stayed at the Ambassador Hotel until approximately 10:15 - 10:30 p.m. at which time we left for our homes in Rabago's panel truck.

The first that I had heard of the attack upon Robert Kennedy was later that evening on the radio. The following day, June 5, 1968, Enrique Rabago met me ^{in H.C.} downtown Los Angeles and told ^{H.C.} me that he believed the individual we had talked to on the previous evening was the man accused of shooting Senator Kennedy. We waited until the late edition of the "Herald Examiner" came out at which time I looked at the photograph of the man on the front page who was accused of shooting Senator Kennedy and I positively recognized him as being the man that I had spoken to on the previous evening at the Ambassador Hotel.

Immediately after viewing this paper Rabago and I drove to the Los Angeles Office of the FBI where we were interviewed by Special Agent Paul Chamberlain, Jr.

On June 6, 1968, Special Agent Chamberlain showed me the photographs of six male caucasians and from these photographs I positively identified one man as being identical with the individual I had seen at the Ambassador Hotel on the night Senator Kennedy was shot.

To the best of my memory I would describe this individual, that I saw at the Ambassador Hotel, as follows:

Male

Caucasian

5'5"

Weight - very slight, about 125 lbs.

Complexion - dark

Hair - dark, very kinky

Age - early 20s

Characteristics - appeared to be Latin;

appeared intelligent

I read the above statements consisting of this page and four others and I find them to be true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
