THIS MAN IS YOUR MAN, THIS MAN IS MY MAN

First Verse and Chorus

This man is your man, this man is my man
From California to New York City
From the Redwood Forest to the Gulf Stream waters
That man is ROBERT KENNEDY.

Let us stop the fighting, start counting
Increase our efforts, to help our neighbors.
This nation needs such a man who leads now
That man is ROBERT KENNEDY.

Chorus

Third Verse

He talks with all men, He talks with all men.
In times of crisis he is the right man.
For peace in our land, for peace in all lands
THE MAN IS ROBERT KENNEDY.

Paradoxical Bob

ASSUMING THE CANDIDATE ARE GOING TO get votes and support from the old-time work.

Just the other day, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy of New York made a speech in Los Angeles which certainly was not going to have the Political, Catholic and Jewish groups, which have been prominent in our time of three against Egypt and the Arab countries.

Kennedy said: "We cannot — and will not — permit the Soviet Union to continue its subversion in the Middle East. We will not allow the United States to be used as a base for the Soviet Union's military buildup. We cannot — and will not — render Israel defenseless in the face of aggression."

For during the last three years, on the other hand, the Soviet Union has been sending money to North Vietnam as well as handling other military operations in the area, for a price of at least a billion dollars a year. Yet no demand has been made by any of the presidential candidates that economic sanctions be taken against the Soviet Union and other Communist countries.

SEN. KENNEDY has also declared the United some should use its power during international crises "only as a strategic reserve against a world situation of threats" — he adds.

Vietnam is only Vietnam. It will not seem the face of Asia or America — much less the face of the world.

Lots of people, however, think the situation in the Middle East is not nearly as dangerous as the situation in Southeast Asia. Also there are many members of Congress who feel that, if it is proper for the United States to render military support to Israel in the Middle East, it is equally necessary to protect the countries of Southeast Asia against aggression.

Sen. Kennedy, in a speech in Portland, Ore., last month, criticized the administration's attitude even more severely when he said:

"American foreign policy has become obsessed with power, and in that obsession we have forgotten our purpose."

"If the unilateral transfer of our extrabudgetary aid to isolated survivors, to many of our traditional allies and neutral friends, we have a right to expect that our policy will have a direct impact on the situation in the world."

Kennedy, in his speech on Monday, inserted the word "unilateral" in his speech in the Middle East and suggested aid to Israel "which would be a direct impact on the situation in the world."

OPPOSITE to the way in Vietnam has been expressed by presidential candidates appealing to voters who are fearful that their sons may be drafted or to the families of those young men who are already in the Armed Forces of the United States in Southeast Asia, a large number of people in this country are deeply concerned with the events in the Middle East, particularly with the fate of Israel. Since the political candidates see a big advantage in promoting their firm support of American intervention in the Middle East.

Presidential candidates, in assuming that they would not accept nomination in a primary had hoped to win the Vietnam point out of the campaign, but they are now finding it hard to obtain an issue in the speeches by the two Democratic candidates, Sen. Kennedy of New York and Sen. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota.
