Afternoon after shooting, she was working in Kennedy News Room in the Ambassador, next to kitchen. One man glued to the TV set and talking to the TV, excited and mumbling every time he saw Kennedy. She asked around and nobody knew him. Got a uniformed older hotel security who ushered the guy out. Subject was probably MidEast extraction, late 20's or early 30's, husky broad shouldered with ill fitting, dark suit with deep maroon tones and orange cast. Broad face, swarthy complexion, dark eyes, 5-9. Would know him if saw him again. May tie in with Larry Becks statement of co-hort of Sirhans.

Unidentified caller states that approx. one month ago Adel Sirhan and Munir Sirhan met with the former owner of the Egyptian Gardens (formerly on Hollywood Blvd., burned down sometime ago). This club owner had just returned from Mexico at the time of the meeting and supposedly Munir had just returned from a trip of his own. Their meeting took place at the Fez Supper Club on Vermont. There was an unidentified person in on the meeting. Nothing further. Caller referred to his source of information as "she", and when I asked him about it he stated it was his wife who is employed at the Fez. He refused any more I.D. Caller sounded Caucasian--no accent.
