Sirhan Gets Top Attorney For Defense

LOS ANGELES, June 19—(UPI)—The accused assassin of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy Wednesday retained one of California's top attorneys to defend him in a courtroom drama that might see Arab lawyers put Arab-Israeli-U.S. relations on trial.

The possibility that the murder trail of Sirhan B. Sirhan, 24, a native of Jordan, might be turned into a propaganda platform for the Arab cause developed before he signed papers in county jail, for the free legal service of attorney Russell Parsons.

Parsons, who will take over Sirhan's defense from the public defender's office, told reporters who asked him if he would accept help from Arab attorneys that he would "welcome help from anybody."

The attorney said Sirhan only "shrugged his shoulders" when told that Arab lawyers might aid in his defense.

Parsons told reporters a local attorney would assist him, but declined to name the lawyer. He said it would be up to the court whether Arab lawyers would be permitted to help.

Attorneys not qualified to practice law in California are allowed to assist a qualified lawyer, under state law. The Public Defender's office Tuesday closed the door on outside assistance in its handling of the case.

But now that Sirhan has arranged for private counsel, Public Defender Wilbur Littlefield no longer would represent him, and the way would be clear technically for use of overseas lawyers to enter the case should Parsons consent.

The announcement that Sirhan had retained Parsons was made by Abraham Lincoln Wiring, local attorney for the American Civil Liberties Union, who told reporters he witnessed Sirhan sign the agreement retaining Parsons.

Immediately afterward, Public Defender Richard S. Buckley and Parsons conferred with Sir-han in County jail, where the defendant is held without bail under tight security.

SUBJECT: KENSALT

Re Los Angeles teletype 6/25/68, and mytel in response thereto of 6/26/68.

Supervisor GIL BENJAMIN, Los Angeles, advised me at 10:05 P.M. of the following data pursuant to request in mytel this date:

The only information that Los Angeles has concerning JOHN M. LAWRENCE or JOHN M. LAURENCE is that he was born 12/4/21 at Fort Worth, Texas. He allegedly is a law clerk and supposedly has an address of 57 - 10th Street, New York City. This information, according to BENJAMIN, was received by Los Angeles from New Haven in response to Los Angeles' teletype of 6/25/68. BENJAMIN said they do not know whether LAWRENCE is white or Negro.

BENJAMIN said LAWRENCE has been in touch with SIRHAN since SIRHAN's arrest for the assassination of Senator KENNEDY and LAWRENCE has offered the services of the "Federated Americans Against Israeli Racism" to SIRHAN for his defense. BENJAMIN said Los Angeles knows nothing about the character of this organization but is attempting to ascertain such information.

BENJAMIN also said LAWRENCE has been in touch with the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Office concerning SIRHAN and his defense.

BENJAMIN said they have no additional information concerning LAWRENCE and the data they have concerning his alleged confinement on 4/22/62 in Denver, Colorado, on a "Writ of Commitment" was obtained by our Los Angeles Office from the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Office.

BENJAMIN, in response to my inquiry, said he did not have any information indicating where LAWRENCE was allegedly confined in Denver or the circumstances concerning the writ. I told him we would initiate appropriate investigation to ascertain available data concerning LAWRENCE.

The following investigation was conducted by SAs EDWARD M. HARGRAVE and STANLEY E. PETERSON at Youngstown, Ohio:

ROBERT M. WALKER, U. S. Probation Officer, Youngstown, was contacted on June 28, 1968, and he advised FRED COOPER is currently residing at 212 Broadway Avenue, Youngstown, with his mother.

FRED COOPER, 212 Broadway Avenue, Youngstown, advised on June 28, 1968 he had met JAMES HOFFA at the U. S. Penitentiary, Lewisburg, Pa., but stated they were not friends, and he had never engaged HOFFA in any conversation at any time. He stated he knew who HOFFA was, and recalls that when HOFFA entered the penitentiary, possibly in March, 1967, he overheard him say, "Well here I am, there's nothing I can do about it, and I'm just going to have to make the best of it." HOFFA also indicated that it was just a piece of paper that tripped him up, which resulted in his conviction, however, COOPER never heard what it was.

COOPER was questioned specifically about the statement allegedly made by HOFFA on or about Memorial Day, 1967, and COOPER stated that if HOFFA made such a statement regarding the late ROBERT KENNEDY he, COOPER, did not overhear the statement, and never at any time heard anyone comment about such a statement. COOPER added that he never heard the name of KENNEDY mentioned by HOFFA at any time.

MURKIN

ALLEGATIONS BY EDWARD HUGH POLE
CONCERNING JAMES RIDDLE HOFFA

Reference is made to Denver's communications dated June 14 and June 17, 1968, which set forth in detail results of the interview with Edward Hugh Pole on June 14, 1968, concerning the fact that James Riddle Hoffa had been overheard by Pole around Memorial Day, 1967, at the breakfast meal, Lewisburg Penitentiary, to make the statement "I have a contract out on Kennedy and if he ever gets in the primaries or ever gets elected, the contract will be fulfilled within six months."

Attached is a copy of a communication from the Criminal Division setting forth the Department's response to the Bureau's request as to whether Hoffa or his associates should be interviewed.

In connection therewith immediate investigation should be initiated along these lines to include interviews of Hoffa, Samuel Bosist, Anthony Provenzano and others who may be associated with Hoffa at the Lewisburg Penitentiary. Consideration should likewise be given to reinterview of Pole who made the original allegation.

Additionally, interviews should be sought with Edward Grady Fortin and Don George.

This matter should be handled expeditiously and appropriate FD-302's furnished Los Angeles for inclusion in the next MURKIN report.

AMATEUR LAWYER PI

Judge's Accuser Gets Contempt Jail Order

Post 4/24/62

By ZEKI SCHER

Denver Post Staff Writer
John M. Lawrence, 40, of 1950 Broadway, was sentenced to Denver County Jail Tuesday for an indefinite period for accusing District Judge Don D.
Bowman in open court of "committing crimes of misdemeanors and felonies."

Lawrence, a self-proclaimed expert on the law who never went to law school, was the star of another fantastic court hearing which culminated in his conviction for contempt of court.

Although told in a hearing a week ago to stop harassing the court with petitions in the Metropolitan Capital Improvements District tax case, Lawrence topped his previous efforts with new motions to disqualify Judge Bowman and to intervene as "attorney pro se for defendants."

It was also disclosed during the hearing that Lawrence Monday filed a $10,000 libel suit in U.S. District Court naming Judge Bowman, the Rocky Mountain News and five of the newspaper's employees.

Judge Bowman patiently attempted for 90 minutes Tuesday to hear Lawrence's arguments on why the court should disqualify itself from handling the $3 million tax refund case.

Lawrence's argument went
this way:

- Lawrence has sued Bowman for $10,000.

- Bowman's ruling on Lawrence's participation on the MCID case is an issue in the libel suit.

- Therefore, Bowman has "a definite interest" and should disqualify himself from the MCID case.

"By this thinking this man could disqualify every judge in the state of Colorado," objected Atty. Charles Ginsberg.

The accusation of crimes being committed by the judge was contained in the disqualification motion Lawrence presented to the court.

The judge first denied Lawrence's motion, saying this was the first time in his life he had been accused of not being fair and just. He then denied Lawrence's request to intervene.
(Lawrence claims everybody is doing everything wrong in the MCID case.)

"I hereby put the court on notice that any further proceedings are null and void and you will be liable for civil damages," Lawrence asserted.

Judge Bowman charged that Lawrence had shown "flagrant disrespect" to the court and other state officials.

"You are in the most contemptuous position of any individual I have ever seen,"
the judge said. "It is the court's order that you be held in County Jail until you purge yourself of contempt."

Bowman said the court wants to be sure Lawrence is mentally responsible for his conduct,
and the judge appointed Dr.
Charles Rymer, Denver psychiatrist, to examine Lawrence in

'Pro Litigant' Handling Own Sanity Case

By ZEKE SCHER

Denver Post Staff Writer

John M. Lawrence, 40, controversial "professional litigant," was returned to Denver Friday to begin his fight to prove he isn't a mental case and that state officials actually are all wrong in handling the "Metropolitan Capital Improvement District tax case."

In two and a half hours of argument before County Judge David Brofman, Lawrence gained success in one area.

He was permitted to take over complete control as his own attorney and relegated Joseph Marranzino, court-appointed counsel, to the status of "assistant."

Lawrence, after arguing numerous motions, was given a trial date of July 10 for a jury to decide if a county court medical commission was correct in branding him mentally incompetent.

Judge Brofman, acting on that finding May 10, sent Lawrence to the State Hospital at Pueblo. Colorado law permits the alleged mentally ill person to demand a jury trial on the sanity issue.

The commitment climaxed earlier turbulence in Denver District Court in which Lawrence was held for contempt and sentenced to County Jail for accusing Presiding Judge Don D. Bowman, of "committing crimes and felonies" in the $3 million MCID tax refunds.

LIBRARY WORK

In asking Friday to take over as his own lawyer, Lawrence told Judge Brofman, "I have special knowledge through intensive study, including 6,000 hours of library work."

Lawrence said the upcoming sanity trial will include highly complex matters and issues of constitutional law which he felt handle, even though he never has gone to law school.

Judge Brofman termed Marranzino fully qualified to handle the case, but Lawrence insisted on doing it himself. The judge then consented but directed Marranzino to stand by as Lawrence's assistant.

The judge was unsuccessful in limiting Lawrence in his argument. At one point Lawrence said the end of the hearing "will depend on at what stage I get a favorable ruling from the court."

When Judge Brofman entered his first order denying Lawrence's request for personal use of a law library, Lawrence charged the judge with bias and prejudice and demanded him to disqualify himself from the case.

"There is no prejudice, and the court will not disqualify itself," Brofman replied. "There is a strong endeavor on the part of the court to protect your rights."

CUSTODY REQUEST

Lawrence requested that his custody be placed with someone in Denver pending the trial, rather than at the State Hospital, so he can research the law and retain "several psychiatrists" for his side.

"I am my own attorney, and I should have the same freedom as an attorney," he claimed.

Wallace McCamant, assistant city attorney, said Lawrence's commitment was based on medical opinions of mental incompetency and that the medical recommendation on custody should remain as ordered. The judge agreed.

Lawrence came to Denver early last year and lived at a hotel at 1940 Broadway. His chief occupation was filing suits and petitions in the various Denver area courts—until ruled in contempt for attempting to take over the MCID case.
