RE LA TEL TO BUREAU AND SE INSTANT DATE (TAMARA COROVICH).

THIS DATE VERONICA DEEMS INTERVIEWED. STATES ON JUNE SIX LAST, EMPLOYED AT BOUTIQUE SHOP AT MIRAMAR HOTEL, SANTA MONICA, CALIF., ALSO EMPLOYED AS COCKTAIL WAITRESS SAME HOTEL SAME TIME. IN CONFUSION IN AFTERMATH OF SLAYING OF SENATOR ROBERT F. KENNEDY, WHEN PUBLIC NOTICES PUT OUT RE "MISSING GIRL", DEEMS NOTICED THREE SEPARATE INCIDENTS, IN NO WAY CONNECTED WITH ONE ANOTHER, WHICH SHE THOUGHT MIGHT BE OF VALUE IN LOCATING "MISSING GIRL". INCIDENTS PREVIOUSLY REPORTED BY DEEMS TO DETECTIVE LLOYD HILAIEL, SANTA MONICA PD.

INCIDENT NUMBER ONE...HOTEL GUEST REGISTERED UNDER NAME OF MARGARET E. PETTE, MANHATTAN, N.Y., OCCUPIED ROOM TWO THREE NINE, MIRAMAR HOTEL, SANTA MONICA, JUNE FIVE THROUGH NINE LAST. DEEMS SAID THAT THIS WOMAN HAD BEEN A GUEST AT THIS SAME HOTEL FOR ABOUT TWO WEEKS TOTAL, HAVING PREVIOUSLY STAYED IN ANOTHER ROOM UNREGISTERED, ACCORDING TO BELLBOY PETER KALVODA, AS TOLD TO DEEMS. DEEMS SAID THAT WHEN FOOD AND MERCHANDISE ORDERED BY PETTE FROM HOTEL AND BOUTIQUE SHOP, PETTE WOULD NOT SHOW FACE WHEN DELIVERED. WAS TOPIC OF CONVERSATION AMONG HOTEL EMPLOYEES.

WHO DID NOT SEE FACE DURING TWO WEEK PERIOD. PETTE SUPPOSEDLY HAD HER WIG STYLED AT MIRAMAR HOTEL BEAUTY SHOP SO THAT WIG WOULD COVER PART OF FACE. PETTE ALSO ORDERED PANTY HOSE FROM BOUTIQUE SHOP INDICATING HEIGHT WAS FIVE FEET SIX INCHES. DEEMS TALKED TO PETTE ON PHONE AND PETTE'S VOICE SOUNDED LIKE THAT OF YOUNG WOMAN, NO ACCENT. REGISTRATION CARD AT HOTEL INDICATED PETTE LEFT HOTEL ON JUNE NINE LAST. DEEMS REPORTED PETTE ONLY ON BASIS THAT REPORTS INDICATED LOS ANGELES PD LOOKING FOR UNKNOWN WOMAN AT THAT TIME IN CONNECTION WITH KENSALT, AND THAT SHE HAD NO OTHER REASON TO CONNECT PETTE WITH INSTANT MATTER OTHER THAN ACTIVITIES NOTED ABOVE.

INCIDENT NUMBER TWO...DEEMS SAID THAT ON JUNE THREE LAST AN UNKNOWN MALE LEFT A SUITCASE AT THE DOOR OF THE MIRAMAR HOTEL BEAUTY SHOP STATING THAT HE WOULD RETURN FOR IT LATER, AND ASKED ATTENDANTS TO LOOK AFTER SUITCASE. DEEMS SAID THAT NO-ONE CAME FOR SUITCASE AS OF JUNE SEVEN LAST, WHEN TWO MEN, BELIEVED TO BE FBI AGENTS, TOOK IT AWAY. DEEMS HEARD FROM BEAUTY SHOP EMPLOYEES THAT SUITCASE CONTAINED MEN'S CLOTHING. DEEMS SAID THAT SHE HAD NO REASON TO BELIEVE SUITCASE WAS CONNECTED WITH KENSALT.

INCIDENT NUMBER THREE...PETER KALVODA, SUPRA, LEFT SOME PAPERS AT DEEMS' APARTMENT, EIGHT FIVE TWO B TENTH STREET, SANTA MONICA, JUNE EIGHT LAST, AND SHE NOTICED ONE PIECE OF PAPER CARRIED NOTATION "TAMARA KOROVICH" AND THEREAFTER FOLLOWED NOTATION ABOUT DEPARTURE OF AMERICAN AIRLINES FLIGHT SCHEDULED TO ARRIVE KENNEDY AIRPORT (JFK), NEW YORK, ABOUT MIDNIGHT. DEEMS NOW THOUGHT THIS FLIGHT WAS FOR JUNE EIGHT OR NINE LAST. SHE WAS UNABLE TO ASCERTAIN IF TAMARA KOROVICH WAS A PASSENGER OR CREW MEMBER ABOARD AMERICAN AIRLINES FLIGHT ON THAT DAY THROUGH INQUIRIES AT AMERICAN AIRLINES IN LOS ANGELES. SHE KNEW OF NO REASON WHY PETER KALVODA WOULD HAVE THE NAME OF TAMARA KOROVICH, AND THOUGHT CROSSED HER MIND THAT KOROVICH MIGHT BE MISSING GIRL. SHE CLAIMED THAT SHE KNEW ALL OF KALVODA'S ASSOCIATES AND KOROVICH WAS NOT ONE OF THEM. SHE TRIED TO CONTACT FBI LOS ANGELES, BUT ALL LINES WERE BUSY, SO SHE CALLED FBI NEW YORK SINCE FLIGHT HAD ALREADY DEPARTED. DEEMS SUBSEQUENTLY LEARNED FROM KALVODA THAT TAMARA KOROVICH IS A STEWARDESS WITH AMERICAN AIRLINES BASED IN NEW YORK, WHOM HE MET CASUALLY AT MIRAMAR HOTEL DURING ONE OF HER LAYOVERS. DEEMS NOW HAS NO REASON TO CONNECT KOROVICH WITH KENSALT IN ANY WAY. UAC^B KALVODA NOT BEING INTERVIEWED.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover,
Director of F. B. I.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir,

O KENSALT

I may be wrong, but I have to say it. I don't think that the late President John F. Kennedy was killed because of Cuba, and I don't think that Senator Robert Kennedy was killed because of Jerusalem. I think that it was their committment to the Negro people that caused their death.

At one time I worked with Grace Madole, James Madole's mother, the American Na zi people. This was at the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. 1 Madison Avenue, New York, N. Y.. I stopped speaking to her on the morning after I had seen her insane Son on T. V. spouting Hate... If I had been older and wiser I wouldn't have, and I might have something more concrete to tell you.

Before I learned what they were all about, she spoke of a multi-millionaire living somewhere outside Philadelphia. She, also bragged of having U. S. Congressmen and State Congressmen on her side. I think that she meant it. She is living on West 90, Street, New York City by choice. I don't know who was paying her rent, but it was not a factor. She wanted privacy.

I am truly sorry that I do not know more about her. But, I do know this, she had an indescribable hatred of the Negro Race. She hated the Jewish, Catholic, and Protestants too, but the Negro was her fixation. I saw her in Yorkville handing out her hate literature. I found a discarded copy of it, and even then I wondered where or if her sickness would end or be stopped. As far as I know she is still with us. The newspapers give them the exposure that they love.

These same papers printed the information that Lee Harvey Oswald, in his teens, lived in the West 70's. I am still speaking of New York City. Your files or the files of the Metropolitan Life can confirm, I think, that the Madole's lived on West 90th Street at the same time. Oddball teenagers are impressed with uniforms and motorcycles. The Madole's had both. I wondered then at President Kennedy's death, if there could have been any connection. Proof I have not....

Now, the newspapers say that this Jordanian lived in New York City. He would have been a teenager too. He is supposed to hate the Jewish people. Is it possible that he lived in the same vicinity? They speak of Dallas and Los Angeles, but why does New York City keep coming into the picture.

Proof I have not. Minor details maybe.

She lived in Beacon, N. Y., as you are well aware. Her favorite pastime was visiting the mental asylum near there and going into the extremely violent wards. She knew the guards. this she did for riches!

While living in Beacon, N. Y., she was visited regularly, so she said, by the hoboes, who travel the freight trains North and South. This, you are probably aware of. I often wondered if there was some sort of messenger service involved.

If I'm wrong about this, I shall be very glad. I would greatly prefer not to have known ~~any~~one who could have been responsible for these tragic deaths. The continued reference to New York City has bothered me.

I do not have any further information, but, if for any reason you should wish to speak to me, kindly call me at the office. The telephone number is LR 8 - 2479. My mother has recently suffered several strokes. The news of Robert Kennedy's death has already upset her. I would rather keep her out of anything further.

Sincerely yours,

Catharine E. McLeod

ENCLOSURE TO BUREAU FROM CINCINNATI (175-6)

Article entitled "Bobby Kennedy Will Be Murdered," appearing in 4/2/67 issue of "The National Insider."

ENCLOSURE

62-587-652

The Insider Tells You Why Bobby Kennedy Will Be Murdered!

By E. W. STEELE

Before this decade is finished, Senator Robert F. Kennedy will be the second member of the Kennedy clan to fall under an assassin's bullet!

Wild imagination? We think not.

The same type of twisted mind that spilled the blood of John Fitzgerald Kennedy will entwine Bobby in its death plans. Both JFK and Bobby are public idols—worshipped by the young generation of intellectuals that will soon take over the nation's reins.

Bobby—as did Jack—will woo the under-30 crowd, a liberal, imaginative generation seeking alternatives to war and poverty. But in doing so, Robert Kennedy will lose the faith of the older generation. It will be a member of that generation that spills more Kennedy blood.

Before this decade is out, Robert Kennedy—and his attractive wife, Ethel—will be accused of selling out the country to Communism. Kennedy will be called a "nigger lover" and a "pinko." His own Congressmen will accuse him of "seeking a police state in this very country."

No Love For LBJ

You will hear some of these accusations as soon as 1968!

Just who are Robert Kennedy's enemies?

There is certainly no love lost between Bobby and President Johnson, who has already—in veiled form—blasted Kennedy's stand on "snooping and bugging" devices. However, though Johnson may be Bobby's greatest enemy, he is the last man in the world who would commit such an act. The President is a moral man who fights his battles in the political arena!

But there are others who don't.

While there may have been a foreign influence in the death of President Kennedy, the chances are high, however, that the death of Robert Kennedy will be a national affair—perpetrated by American killers!

Bitter Foes

The Insider, in a far-reaching investigation, sought to pinpoint the most bitter enemies of Robert Kennedy. The two best-known enemies of the young senator are James Hoffa and the Cosa Nostra. It is unlikely, though, that Hoffa himself would go as far as to order the New York senator gunned down.

An FBI agent in Washington, formerly associated with John Kennedy, admitted the possibility that Bobby could be assassinated even more easily than was his brother:

"We were unable to fully protect Jack when he was in the White House. With Robert Kennedy, it's even worse. Bobby doesn't get the protection his brother had. But he does have a helluva lot more enemies.

Mafia Or Union?

"What I'm afraid will happen is that some wise guy will kidnap one of the Kennedy children—as a beginning. They'll hit as close as they can to this man!

"The Mafia or a labor union most likely will be behind it—although the rank-and-file union member won't know a thing about it. The average union member doesn't have anything against Kennedy. It's the bosses—the ones who get their toes stepped on.

"Whether Bobby was right or not, I'm not in a position to say. As an agent, I can't say much about what's going on between the Mafia and the labor unions.

"Both groups have some pretty high officials on their death list. Officially, of course, I can't name names. I can't say Bobby Kennedy is or is not a target. That's something you'll just have to guess at."

'Spoiled Brat'

The Insider turned to jailed Teamster boss James Hoffa for a look at what the short labor wizard thinks of his greatest adversary:

"Now, I regard Bobby Kennedy as a spoiled brat! He's just a brat that believes everybody is supposed to surrender and give in to whatever he wants, right or wrong. In my opinion, he prostitutes his oath of office, and he's violated the Constitution of the United States and is subject to go to jail.

"I question whether or not he has a single friend, and I question whether or not his associates are other than people who have to associate with him, and who are involved in a question of their position.

Bobby Kennedy's family fears that the late President's brother will some day come face-to-face with his own Oswald.

"... he has used every underhanded tactic he could use, and the greatest public relations campaign in the world, to try to distort, mislead, and destroy James Hoffa."

As friends of Hoffa will tell you, when someone tries to destroy James Hoffa, Hoffa retaliates "with vigah" and closely follows the rule of "survival of the fittest." Whether Robert Kennedy will be the one to survive is very doubtful.

A close friend of the Kennedy family revealed that there have been hundreds of hate letters sent to the Kennedy home and office.

'Serious Threat'

"Bobby doesn't take many of them seriously. They're just the usual assortment of cranks and crackpots.

"But once in a while he runs across one that has to be a really serious threat. Sometimes the writer mentions certain plans or something of that nature pertaining to an upcoming trip—something only the Kennedys were supposed to have known.

"Someone hates Bobby with a passion! He knows it. He never lets Ethel see the letters. But I think she knows. Whoever it is that wants him dead has powerful contacts up on the Hill (Capitol Hill). Someday I'm afraid they'll succeed."

The weak spot of the Kennedy clan is their utmost trust in others.

It was a Thursday evening when Jack Kennedy said he did not want a top on the motorcade convertible. Yes, he said, he knew Dallas had spat upon Adlai Stevenson only a few weeks before. Yes, he had seen the threat of death published in a Dallas newspaper.

Jack Kennedy had even comically acted out his own assassination—grinning childishly as he brandished a make-believe machine gun!

But John Kennedy belonged to the people. And the people belonged to him. They were one and the same.

Part Of People

Less than 24 hours later John F. Kennedy was dead.

Prior to November 22, Bobby Kennedy had been much the same way when it came to pleasing the public. Today that ardor has dampened only slightly. Bobby still likes the crowds, the cheers, and the noise. He is a part of the people. And the people are a part of him.

The bigness of the Kennedy heart was recently demonstrated by Ethel when she was taken to court for "stealing" a horse. The owner, Nicholas Zemo, told a jury of seven men that the horse was valued at $50,000 because of the racing blood in his ancestry.

Ethel Kennedy told the same jury she found this so-called "prize race horse" starving and uncared-for and took it home to feed it. Five days later it died—of starvation.

White House Out!

When jurors heard that ancestors of Pande, the dead horse, "had never won a race," the case was dismissed.

This is the Kennedy heart. Someday soon, for Robert F. Kennedy, that heart will stop beating. Robert Kennedy will never live to see the White House!

While the assassins will try to quench the life of Robert Kennedy, they will do the most damage to his wife, Ethel. The murder will have a much more profound effect upon her than did the assassination of the President upon Jackie Kennedy.

Jacqueline's poise—if we are to believe her statements in William Manchester's "Death of a President"—was an act of anger. She "wanted the world to see what they had done to Jack."

Ethel has little of Jackie's queenliness; Ethel could be just another housewife in Smalltown, U.S.A. She has none of Jacqueline's reserve, none of the timidity. Ethel is closer to the people than Jackie ever was. This will cause her the pain—the fact that the people Ethel Kennedy was so much a part of would be responsible for murdering her husband.

Lonely Sorrow

While widow Jacqueline has only Caroline and John-John to consider, Ethel will have nine fatherless children to clothe, feed, and love.

The sorrow of the exquisite and beautiful Jacqueline Kennedy were shared by a grieving nation. The sorrow of equally-beautiful Ethel Kennedy will be borne alone.

This story is one the Insider takes little pleasure in presenting. But nonetheless, we have good reason to believe that the young New York senator with the Boston accent and the Harvard haircut will soon be given his own resting place in Arlington National Cemetery.

He will go down in history as the second Kennedy in public office to die at the hands of an assassin's bullet!

Nude Movie

THE SWAP—AND HOW

Uninhibited housewife prepares to seduce local college boy.

A New York film producer has portrayed on film what few people have confessed to in private — wife swapping can be fun—and tragic!

The film story takes place in an industrial exurban community of Denton. The real story takes place in the suburbs of Chicago, New York, San Francisco, and a dozen other metropolitan areas.

The ingredients are the same everywhere: a young, ambitious husband more interested in financial success than he is in his family, and a young, frustrated, sex-starved wife who sees her husband only at breakfast and when the lights are turned out at night.

Neglect Wives

"The Swap," a new release by General Studios, tells the poignant story of Mona and Les Parsons, young and exuberant — on their way to success and tragedy. Les Parsons, with a friend, Wayne Ford, attempts to start a new business. The hours are long. Mona and Karen suffer the neglect felt by all suburban wives left at home by venture-bound husbands.

Uninhibited Karen seduces a local college boy. Mona, who agrees reluctantly at first, has an affair with a neighbor, Brooke Furman. From there they are drawn into the local

Young suburban wives draw numbers to determine whom club whose activities are vividly

"wife-swap" club.

Trouble begins when the hostess of one such party unmasks her mate, Karen's college lover, to find it is her own son, Dick. Dick's "legitimate" girl friend — also at the party — voices disapproval and threatens to disclose embarrassing information to her uncle, publisher of an expose magazine—which could ruin everyone at the party. The party hostess silences the girl by producing blackmail photographs.

Fatal Radiation

By PAUL GENE

Chemicals must be added to each can of food you buy to keep it from spoiling after the many weeks—and even months—that it takes the food to go from farm to manufacturer to retailer to you.

Wife-swap clubs attract frustrated suburban wives, fun-seeking males. Age is no barrier—either way! In some communities, almost all adults participate!

Just read the label, as the saying goes, and you'll know. Then compare those chemicals with some of the ones that have been used to produce cancer in animals in lab experiments, and you'll know something else—for they are the same!

Top Of Iceberg!

As one natural food faddist put it after the cranberry scare of a few years ago, "This is only the top one percent of the iceberg. For every can of cranberries that was poisoned, there are ten million cans on the shelves of the supermarkets with worse poison!"

That was then.

But now the worst poison of all is being put into our food — radiation.

And it is being pushed by the most powerful group of all in America. Not just the farmers, not just the manufacturers, not just the sellers.

The government.

We know that radiation causes cancer.

We know that it causes many lesser but almost as painful and disabling complaints.

And yet the government has put on an all-out push to treat our food with deadly X-rays.

Sure it kills germs. And makes the food "keep" for many months until we eat it. But keep what?

Death?

So far, a number of products (including bacon and potatoes) have been okayed by the FDA for radiation. Many more are on the way. Many manufacturers and processors are already using radiation with or without approval from the government.

Giving In

What's more, they are trying to convince the government that the word "energy" should be used to replace radiation on the packages (for any people who still read the labels of the products they buy) so that the public won't know what they're buying.

And the government is giving in.

RE: CORRESPONDENCE FROM
B. REMMEL
LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS

Re Bureau airtel to Little Rock, 6/19/68, transmitting a copy of a letter to the Director from B.
REMMEL dated 6/14/68.

Mrs. BEVERLY B. REMMEL, 5144 Cantrell Road, Little Rock, Arkansas, furnished the following information on 6/21/68:

She had on infrequent occasions, possibly six or eight times during the last two or three years seen an individual in Little Rock, Arkansas, resembling the newspaper photograph of SIRHAN B. SIRHAN. She described this individual as a white male in his early 20's, short in stature, slender, dark bushy hair, "Shepherd-boy type", dark complexion, wiry build, usually dressed in dark plaid shirts and slacks. She had no idea as to the identity of this individual or the young man who was his usual companion other than the companion was taller and may have been older. Mrs. REMMEL is an artist, and her attention had been drawn to this young man because of "his sympathetic face." She could not furnish any specific times or circumstances under which she had seen this individual

The last time she saw this individual was on or about 5/29/68 at Bard's Restaurant when he was accompanied by his usual male companion. Mrs. REMMEL was accompanied by her 17 year old daughter, Mrs. JOE MILLER. On this occasion, Mrs. MILLER told Mrs. REMMEL that she had briefly met the individual at a public meeting at Little Rock University at sometime in the past. Mrs. REMMEL had some recollection that her daughter had also stated that this individual was from Jerusalem.

A photograph of SIRHAN was shown to Mrs. REMMEL, and she stated that there was a strong resemblance between the SIRHAN photograph and the individual she had seen in restaurants.

Mrs. JOE D. MILLER, 4400 West 10th Street, Little Rock, Arkansas, furnished the following information on 6/21/68:

She recalled the incident described above by her mother, but after viewing a photograph of SIRHAN stated he definitely was not identical with the individual she and her mother had seen at Bard's Restaurant in May, 1968. She explained that about Christmas, 1967, she attended a public meeting at Little Rock University sponsored by the campus fraternities attended by the public. Some person not recalled had simply introduced to her the same individual who was seen by herself and her mother later in May, 1968, at Bard's Restaurant. She described this individual as being a white male, about 22, 5'5", slender build, dark complexion, ^{and} dark bushy hair. She could not furnish the names of any persons who might have known this individual. She assumed that this individual was a Little Rock University student.

For the information of the Los Angeles Office, if the whereabouts of SIRHAN cannot be established for the date 5/29/68, it is possible that through extensive investigation at Little Rock University the identity of the individual seen by Mrs. MILLER and Mrs. REMMEL could be established.

KENSALT

For your information, the two books requested by Sirhan Sirhan following his arrest and incarceration by Los Angeles authorities have been reviewed at the Bureau. The following is a brief summary of contents and description of authors of these two books:

"The Secret Doctrine (six volumes)
by Madame Helena P. Blavatsky

"Talks on the Path of Occultism, Volume I -
At the Feet of the Master" by Annie Besant and C. W. Leadbeater

These books deal with theosophy, a doctrine relating to diety, cosmos and self producing spiritual insight superior to that of historical religion or empirical knowledge by which adherents can master nature and guide their destiny.

The Theosophical Society

In 1873, Madame Blavatsky, born 1831 in Russia, associated with prominent persons in New York investigating the phenomena of spiritualism. In 1875, she founded the Theosophical Society to (1) form a nucleus for the universal brotherhood of humanity, (2) promote study of comparative religion, philosophy and science, and (3) investigate unexplained laws of nature and the powers latent in man. Organization's headquarters were established in India. By 1891, the year of her death, Madame Blavatsky had nearly 100,000 followers throughout the world.

Annie Besant, born 1847 in London and a devoted pupil of Madame Blavatsky, became president of the Society in 1907. In 1909, she and her associate, Charles W. Leadbeater, selected a 14-year-old Hindu boy, Krishnamurti, to be the new world teacher and Messiah of the movement. However, the boy did not measure up to her expectations and renounced practically all her writings. She died in the 1930's.

Letter to SAC, Los Angeles
RE: KENSALT

In recent years, the Theosophical Society has maintained its U.S. headquarters and publishing house for Society literature at Wheaton, Illinois. Current aims are to build idea of brotherhood of man without regard to color, sex, or religion and to further study of all philosophies and religions.

"The Secret Doctrine"

This six-volume book, completed in 1888, is a synthesis of science, religion and philosophy. Its purpose is to (1) show that nature is not "a fortuitous concurrence of atoms, (2) assign to man his rightful place in the scheme of the universe, (3) rescue from degradation the archaic truths which are basis of all religions, and (4) show that occult side of nature has never been approached by the science of modern civilization.

Volumes 1 and 2 deal with cosmogenesis, the theory of the origin and development of the universe. Volumes 3 and 4 relate to anthropogenesis, the study of biological origin and development of man involving man's impact on nature. Volume 5 is largely miscellaneous, comprised of papers of Madame Blavatsky on random subjects such as origin of magic, ancient religious dogmas, various occult systems, Hebrew allegories, symbolism of sun and stars, mystery of Buddha, et cetera. Volume 6 is an index and glossary.

"Talks on the Path of Occultism"

According to the book (published in 1926), the four qualifications for pursuing the path of occultism (belief in hidden or mysterious powers and the possibility of subjecting them to human control) are: discrimination, desirelessness, good conduct and love. By discrimination, the authors mean knowledge of what is worth following and what is not worth following. By desirelessness, the authors refer to learning to do right for right's sake, not for the sake of anything man may gain from it for himself. By good conduct is meant self-control of mind and action, tolerance, cheerfulness and confidence. By love is meant man must be careful not to hurt any living thing and always watch for an opportunity to help others. (Significantly, from Sirhan's standpoint, the book states "Intentional cruelty is purposely to give pain to another living being; and that is the greatest of all sins--the work of a devil rather than a man.")

It is noted these two books contain no mystical theories concerning assassination, acts of violence, et cetera. On the contrary, the theosophical concept is based on brotherhood of man.

KENSALT

On 6/20/68 Special Assistant to the Attorney General William S. Lynch, who has been charged with the responsibility of handling this matter in the Department of Justice, advised that he had been contacted late in the afternoon on that date by an Inspector Houghton of the Los Angeles Police Department who was flying to Washington, D. C., accompanied by two representatives of the District Attorney's office in order to interview Ethel Kennedy. He requested Mr. Lynch arrange such an interview.

Lynch indicated he had been in contact with Senator Edward Kennedy's office in an attempt to arrange an interview however, no decision had as yet been made. He advised in view of the fact Los Angeles representatives were arriving in town that night and considering local authorities would handle prosecution of this matter, if arrangements could be finalized these authorities should interview Mrs. Kennedy. Lynch indicated he would make arrangements for Los Angeles authorities to furnish the FBI full results of their interview.

Los Angeles Office should follow this matter with local authorities to insure results of this interview are made available to you if and when it does take place.
