ASSASSINATION OF SENATOR
ROBERT F. KENNEDY

ROBERT SMITH

On June 9, 1968, Detective Dale Buehler, Area One Homicide, Chicago Police Department, advised that on Saturday, June 8, 1968, at approximately 10:00 AM, two male Negroes, subsequently identified as Robert Smith, also known as Yaree Ameer, and his half-brother Michael Walton, entered Supreme Grocery Store, 343 East 51st Street, Chicago, and without any warning shot the owner of the store who was bent over arranging a display in the store. Three witnesses observed Smith and Walton enter the store, approach the owner, and without uttering a sound fire two shots from a .38 caliber revolver, striking the head of Abder Rayyan, described as a male Arab, age 51, alien from Jordan, who has been in the United States for five years. He died fifteen minutes later. Detective Buehler further advised that an Aaron Meyers is being held as a material witness, inasmuch as he drove the car which carried Smith and Walton both to and away from the scene of the murder.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 21, 1967, that Smith, using the alias of Yaree Ameer, is the acting director of the Chicago Branch of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC).

A characterization of SNCC is attached hereto. Sources utilized in this characterization have furnished reliable information in the past.

According to the arrest records of the Chicago Police Department, Smith has been arrested a number of times for burglary, aggravated battery, robbery and purse snatching, inciting a riot and rape.

ROBERT SMITH

On June 10, 1968, local Chicago radio stations, in reporting of the killing of Abder Rayyan, of Jordanian nationality, indicated that the motive for the killing might be one of revenge or a demonstration of emotion by the Negro assailants over the assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy by the Jordanian Arab national. One newscast stated that Aaron Lee Meyers, mentioned above as being held as a material witness, has been charged with murder and two other male Negroes were being sought.

On June 10, 1968, Detective Dale Buehler, Area One Homicide, Chicago Police Department, advised Aaron Lee Meyers had not been charged with murder but was being held as a material witness. He further stated that warrants have been issued for both Robert Smith and his half-brother, Michael Walton, charging them with murder.

On June 11, 1968, Sergeant John Mc Mahon, Area One Homicide, Chicago Police Department, advised that the whereabouts of Smith and Walton are unknown at this time and intensive investigation is being conducted to locate these persons.

On June 12, 1968, Sergeant Mc Mahon advised that Smith and Walton are still being sought for the murder of the grocery store owner. Furthermore, a warrant has been issued on June 12, 1968, for Sally Miller, described as a female Negro, who also was reportedly in the vehicle which carried Smith and Walton to and away from the scene of the crime.

STUDENT NONVIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE

Literature distributed by the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), headquartered at 360-362 Nelson Street, S.W., Atlanta, Georgia, describes itself as not being a membership organization, but rather an agency attempting to stimulate and foster the growth of local protest movements. SNCC was born out of the sit-in movement which erupted across the South beginning on February 1, 1960. A conference at Raleigh, North Carolina, that Spring, brought together many of the demonstrating Southern students in a loose network of militant youth which was officially named SNCC in October, 1960.

A source has advised that in May, 1966, Stokely Carmichael was elected National Chairman by the Central Committee. In May, 1967 Carmichael was replaced as Chairman by H. Rap Brown, with Carmichael assuming the position of Recruiter and Organizer for the SNCC. In August, 1967, at the invitation of Fidel Castro, Carmichael participated in the Organization of Latin American Solidarity Conference which was held in Havana, Cuba. Subsequent thereto, Carmichael traveled to Hanoi and other sections of North Vietnam. He returned to the United States in December, 1967, at which time his passport was picked up because of travel to unauthorized countries.

A source advised that when Carmichael was elected Chairman of SNCC, the organization embarked on a program of eliminating Caucasians from its ranks. With the election of H. Rap Brown as Chairman in 1967, it embarked on a worldwide struggle for human rights and to take a firm stand against violations of these rights by the American Government and to strengthen its programs of opposition to the draft and to the United States involvement in Vietnam.

Literature distributed in February, 1968, identifies SNCC as an organization in the revolutionary vanguard. It advocates that to be successful it is necessary to develop a revolutionary ideology and revolutionary program.

On August 13, 1967, while addressing a group in the Watts area of Los Angeles, California, H. Rap Brown said "You better shape up America, or we'll burn you down." Later in February, 1968, in a publicized note Brown wrote, "America, if it takes my death to organize my people to revolt against you and to organize your jails to revolt against you and to organize your children, your God, your poor, your country, and to organize mankind to rejoice in your destruction and ruin, then here's my life."

re: Assassination of Robert Kennedy

Dear Senator Kennedy:

I write to you because of your obvious deep concern that the assassination of your brother shall be fully investigated. I had an experience today from which I concluded that such an investigation is not being made by the FBI.

I represent a young man named Thomas Daniel Good who was a friend, though not a close friend, of Sirhan.

Good received a call from the FBI saying they wanted to discuss the assassination with him. He consulted me and I advised him he should see and talk to the FBI if there were certain safeguards, including my being present. Consequently, today he and I went to the FBI office in San Francisco and he answered questions of FBI Agents George Galloway and Stanley Fewster.

Though I made it clear at the beginning of the interview that Good was there on my recommendation to answer questions only about Sirhan and not about himself or other people, nevertheless Galloway, who was doing the questioning, could not control his inclination (or instruction) to ask many questions about left-wing political views or connections of Good and another friend of Sirhan's named Walter Crowe.

The reason I write this letter is the very significant fact that not one single question was directed to Good on possible racist, anti-Negro, anti-Semitic, or any other right-wing opinions, friends, contacts, or organizations, of Sirhan. Most of the questions dealt with Sirhan's possible left-wing ideas, connections, or organizations.

When the questioning was concluded, I asked myself: If I were investigating whether any individuals or organizations or movements had cooperated, conspired with, encouraged, or incited Sirhan, what type would I expect to find? Would I not expect to find that such individuals or organizations, if there were any, were hostile to your brother because of his stand on racial questions and the overwhelming support he had among Negroes? And if I were looking for a bridge that might make it possible for individuals or organizations to influence, encourage, or incite Sirhan, would I not think of the connection between his militant anti-Israel position and the anti-Semitic position of the Ku Klux Klan, Citizens' Councils, or other anti-black groups?

If in this investigation I were privileged to question a friend of Sirhan from high school and junior college days, would this not be quite an opportunity to find out how he felt about Negroes, or racist ideas, or reactionary groups of one type or another? For Sirhan might not have announced views along these lines for all to hear, but might well have discussed them with his friends. Does it not therefore require some explanation if, when the FBI is given this opportunity, they have no questions whatsoever to ask Good along these lines?

At the conclusion of this interview, I had made up my mind that the FBI was not interested in finding out whether Racists, or racist organizations, had been connected with Sirhan, but that it was trying to make it appear that this was some kind of a leftist plot.

This is exactly what I told the FBI agents at the close of the interview. I told them I was thoroughly convinced that this was a cover-up by the FBI.

After I had expressed myself, and done so very positively, Mr. Galloway was provoked to make some kind of defense of the FBI. Would you believe (because this is exactly what happened) he said that none of his superiors had given him any instructions or any suggestions whatsoever as to what questions should be asked or what subject matter covered.

I am reasonably certain that I would be agreeable to any kind of use you wish to make of this letter, but I would appreciate your checking with me first.

Very truly yours,

considered the letter and his earlier interview with Juarez newspaper reporters as a big joke, explaining that newspaper reporters want news and this is what he gave them. He denied all specific knowledge of the Kennedy assassination, and stated that he had only seen Sirhan Sirhan on one occasion in the Main Public Library in Los Angeles, California. He described Sirhan as a "crazy Arab".

When questioned regarding his threat to kill Edward Kennedy, he emphatically denied this, and restated that he was only trying to be a "big shot with the press".

Of a background nature, [REDACTED] stated he had been residing at the Manhattan Project, a juvenile home run by the Salvation Army, 602 South Van Ness, Los Angeles, and he identified his Probation Officer, specific nature of charges not determined, as Robert Wineandy, Vermont Avenue, Metropolitan Division, Los Angeles.

He stated that about three weeks ago he ran away from the detention home, and had been arrested by local police at Healdsburg, California while hitchhiking.
