Re Albany airtel to Bureau dated 6/18/68.

CHARLES SHIRO, Spring Lake, New Jersey, was interviewed on 6/21/68, and advised the following:

SHIRO heard DICK GREGORY's speech on the campus of St. Gregory's College, Shawnee, Oklahoma, and also part of his speech at the Commons. SHIRO stated that he did not hear GREGORY say LINDSAY or KENNEDY of New York would be shot before elections. He stated GREGORY's talk was a racist-type in that the theme was the difference in color and I, GREGORY, should have things my way. He also stated that the whites owed the colored a lot.

SHIRO stated that he heard from his history teacher, Father MYRON JUDY, that GREGORY said DALY, LINDSAY or KENNEDY were going to be assassinated before the elections in the fall.

This was said by GREGORY in DAVID CAWTHON's home in Shawnee, Oklahoma. CAWTHON is an English professor at St. Gregory's College. SHIRO stated he actually did not hear GREGORY make any remarks regarding assassination of anyone.

On 6/19/68, FELICIA MESSURI, 16 Fairview Avenue, Tarrytown, New York, wife of ANTHONY MESSURI, NBC-TV Director, telephonically contacted the White Plains, New York Resident Agency and furnished the information set forth below to SA FRANCIS P. GREALY:

She had accompanied her husband to Los Angeles, California, and was present in the ballroom of the Ambassador Hotel when Senator ROBERT F. KENNEDY was assassinated. She was, at the time of the shooting, standing on a packing crate at the rear of the ballroom. Standing next to her was MARY WHALEN, whose husband WILLIAM C. WHALEN, is an NBC Associate Director. They had been standing there following Senator KENNEDY's speech and departure from the podium, when they heard the shrieking cries and saw the scuffling of the crowd, and learned that Senator KENNEDY had been shot.

After the initial hysteria over the shooting, a man turned toward her and said something to her. At the Press reports indicate that Russell E. Parsons, 73-year-old Los Angeles, California, attorney, will serve as Defense Counsel for Sirhan Sirhan, accused assassin of Senator Robert F. Kennedy. For your information, there follows a brief summary of information in our files concerning Mr. Parsons.

SUMMARY or 1895

In 1937, a Departmental Applicant investigation of Russell Edward Parsons was initiated, which investigation was discontinued at the request of the Department prior to completion. The investigation which was conducted indicated Mr. Parsons was born in 1893 and attended the University of Southern California Law School for only one year, taking two subjects, one of which he failed. It is noted that Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory indicates Mr. Parsons was born in 1895 and obtained his law degree at the University of Southern California.

During the investigation, it was ascertained that in 1928, warrants for Mr. Parsons' arrest were issued by Riverside, San Bernardino and Imperial Counties, California, on bad check charges, which were subsequently dismissed. He reportedly entered a guilty plea in January of 1928 to charges of obtaining property by false pretenses, received a sentence of six months, which sentence was suspended, and Mr. Parsons was placed on probation for two years. In 1934 he filed a petition in bankruptcy, which case was dismissed in March, 1935, without his receiving a discharge. Individuals interviewed during the investigation, including judges, attorneys, clients and friends of Mr. Parsons, advised that they had never known him to be involved in any trouble and considered him capable, energetic, hardworking, forceful, a splendid orator, loyal, trustworthy and honest. One attorney advised the check charges mentioned above resulted from the failure of other individuals to carry out their agreement to deposit money to cover the checks which Mr. Parsons wrote.

Beginning in 1917, for two two-year terms, Mr. Parsons served as County Attorney of Beaver County, Utah, as well as City Attorney for Beaver City, Utah, returning to Los Angeles in the mid-1930's to practice law. According to Los Angeles press reports, Mr. Parsons has become nationally known as a trial lawyer in the area of criminal law. In the late 1930's, Mr. Parsons joined the Los Angeles County District Attorneys Office where he served as a top prosecutor assigned to special cases. These press reports indicate that in recent years he has devoted his time to the practice of both civil and criminal cases.

The files of this Bureau reveal that in 1942 Mr. Parsons was one of the attorneys for the officials of Mankind United who were indicted for violation of the Sedition Statutes. According to press reports in August of 1940, Mr. Parsons, then Deputy District Attorney, Los Angeles, California, was interested in prosecuting an old murder case which he stated resulted from the investigation of communist activities in the San Pedro, California, area. Mr. Parsons was quoted as stating the murdered individual had been engaged in anticommunist activities and had been killed during communist attempts to infiltrate and destroy a union.

In 1959, Mr. Parsons was reportedly one of the featured speakers at a State-Wide Conference on Criminal Law Reform under the sponsorship of the National Lawyers Guild of California. The National Lawyers Guild has been cited as a communist front by the House Committee on Un-American Activities. In 1962, information was received from the Internal Revenue Service in Los Angeles concerning an investigation being conducted of Los Angeles attorneys for possible income tax evasion on the basis of "fee-splitting" with local bondsmen. A Federal Grand Jury reportedly failed to develop any evidence to substantiate the allegations.

Assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy
Los Angeles, California

As mentioned above, Mr. Parsons has been active in criminal cases and this Bureau's files reveal that among the individuals whom he has represented have been Joseph, Fred and Alfred Sica, who have been described as Los Angeles hoodlums active in criminal activities, including such activities in the field of bookmaking.

OKENSALT

My memorandum of 6-24-68 set forth information in Bureau files concerning Russell E. Parsons, defense counsel for Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, accused assassin of Senator Robert F. Kennedy. This memorandum pointed out that a summary of the information in our files was being prepared for transmittal to the Attorney General, Deputy Attorney General, Assistant Attorneys General Pollak and Vinson and Special Assistant to the Attorney General William S. Lynch.

ACTION:

Attached for approval is a letterhead memorandum to the Attorney General and the other above-mentioned Departmental officials which summarizes the information contained in Bureau files concerning Parsons.

time this incident had no significance but, since there has been talk of a conspiracy regarding this assassination, the occurrence has been on her mind and she believed it might have some bearing on the shooting. Her present recollection is that this man said something to the following effect: "You saw me! You witnessed the fact that I was standing here when the senator departed!" Those are not the exact words, but she gained the impression he was trying to establish that he was in her view when Senator KENNEDY was shot.

Mrs. WHALEN was present when this unknown man (UNSUB) made this statement; which he addressed to both of them. She recently discussed this incident with Mrs. WHALEN, who recalled that she had also seen this UNSUB in the ballroom crowd earlier, during Senator KENNEDY's speech, carrying a small black object which she assumed was a pocket radio.

Mrs. MESSURI described UNSUB as white, 40-50 years old, 6 feet tall, heavy set, dark complexion, black curly hair, wearing maroon knit shirt. She could not decide his possible nationality. He displayed no physical characteristics but indicated a sense of urgency in his actions and manner of speaking. No accent was detected.

On 6/19/68, MARY WHALEN related to SA HOWARD G. KINALLY, JR., the peculiar conduct of an unknown individual, who was standing near her at the time of the shooting. During KENNEDY's appearance on the podium, UNSUB held a small leather-covered object near his face. Mrs. WHALEN believes that the object, which was about three inches by 5 inches in dimensions, was either a transistor radio or a small transmitter.

After the shooting, UNSUB approached Mrs. WHALEN and her friend, Mrs. FELICIA MESSURI, wife of NBC Producer-Director ANTHONY MESSURI, and said: "You've seen me here all evening, haven't you"? Remember, you have seen me here. Don't forget". At this point UNSUB, who was alone, disappeared and was not seen again.

Mrs. WHALEN described UNSUB as follows:

Race	White
Age	45 to 50
Height	6'
Weight	190 to 200 pounds
Hair	Dark Brown or Black
Complexion	Swarthy
Peculiarity	"Wild-eyed" expression
Dress	Maroon sports jacket and dark knit sports shirt.

Attached is a sketch showing the location of UNSUB in the ballroom. SA KINNALLY requested Mrs. WHALEN to prepare this sketch so that appropriate T.V. films or news photos may be examined for a possible picture of UNSUB in the event the Bureau is interested in identifying him.

Mrs. WHALEN feels certain that she could identify UNSUB if she should ever see him again. Mrs. WHALEN's address is 1346 Midland Avenue, Bronxville, New York.

Mrs. WHALEN said she first observed UNSUB while she was going through the crowd to get Mrs. BARRY STODDARD, whose husband is also employed at NBC, Rockefeller Center, New York, New York. Mrs. STODDARD, who is presently in the hospital for an eye operation, probably also saw UNSUB.

Los Angeles is requested to advise whether above information is of significant value and if NYO should interview Mrs. STODDARD upon her recovery.

You have been previously advised of the circumstances and conditions surrounding the incarceration of Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, accused assassin of Senator Robert F. Kennedy. Details concerning this matter are set forth in the report of Special Agent Amedee O. Richards, Jr., dated June 9, 1968, at Los Angeles, California, and captioned "Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, Civil Rights," copies of which were previously furnished to the Department.

In addition, Deputy Attorney General Warren Christopher on June 7, 1968, visited the Los Angeles County Jail and observed the area and cell where Sirhan is incarcerated.

Since the incarceration of Sirhan we have had a Special Agent on duty at the jail on a full-time basis in a liaison capacity. No pertinent information has been developed as a result of this arrangement and considering the manpower expenditure on this assignment, this liaison function is being discontinued unless advised to the contrary. The Special Agent in Charge of our Los Angeles Office has stated that Sheriff Peter J. Pitchess has assured him that any pertinent developments resulting from Sirhan's incarceration will be immediately brought to our attention.

SIRHAN'S FATHER IN AMMAN: A TALK TO "AD DIFAA" AT MIDNIGHT

At 2:00 p.m. yesterday, ad-Difaa learned that Mr. Bishara Sirhan, father of Sirhan Sirhan, accused of assassinating Senator Robert Kennedy, arrived in Amman from the West Bank on a permit issued by the occupation authorities. It is said that Mr. Sirhan has come to Amman to clear up certain financial matters in preparation for his departure for America. Until 10:00 p.m. ad-Difaa searched high and low for him. In what hotel was he staying? In whose house was he a guest? At last, we found him at the Hotel Continental. Our reporter, Salah Abd as-Samad, who spent over two hours with Mr. Bishara Sirhan, wrote the following interview.

JORDAN
APPROX 1916

Bishara Sirhan was sitting calmly and talking confidently. You could detect in his tone parental emotions. The 52-year old man said, "The murder of Senator Kennedy saddened me because he was from the Kennedy family, but the picture has a second face..."

"Which...?"

"The political face..for the Senator was also an American politician, so on this I have a view to express."

"Please..."

"I believe that the imbalance in Senator Kennedy's speeches while electioneering for the Presidency was the primary cause of what happened."

"How..?"

"He was promising certain parties to supply them with arms and aircraft with full awareness of the consequences of that promise. Its consequences would be more displacement of children, more orphans and more widows. This is in addition to the degradation of and contempt for the Arabs in his speeches, a thing that made my son Sirhan feel insulted in that society where Senator Kennedy was speaking. And this is what pushed my son to act as he did. Had the late Senator been reserved and merely called for peace in the Middle East, nothing would have happened."

"Are you furious with Sirhan?"

"In the first moments after I learned of the incident I was furious."

"And now?"

"My heart and mind are now with him. I believe that world opinion and human conscience will stand by him."

"Why?"

"Because he is a man of good character by the testimony of his university teachers and friends. He is also a fervent Arab in every drop of his blood."

"What was the position of the Israeli authorities toward you?"

"At 4:30 a.m. of the day following the news, an Israeli military car parked in front of my house. I was then taken to the Military Governor's office in Ramallah. An Israeli officer asked about my life, that of Sirhan, and the family..."

"And the Israeli intelligence agency?"

"It also interrogated me and wrote down information similar to that which I gave at the Governor's office."

"And what is the latest news about Sirhan?"

"I learned that he told the investigators he refuses to be tried in the USA, and wants to be tried elsewhere."

"What is his pretext for that?"

"He is not American. I am not either. None of my sons got naturalized."

"What else?"

"Two Lebanese lawyers and a Swedish lawyer have volunteered to defend my son."

"What do you imagine will be the sentence against Sirhan?"

"I believe there are in the world people of free conscience. I believe world public opinion will be on my son's side because Sirhan was a model boy and did not commit his action except to prevent further tragedy and further displacement of children from their homes. Sirhan imagined that Senator Kennedy would add to those tragedies. For all that, I hope that people of conscience in the whole world will stand by my son."

"I only wish the Los Angeles Court, and the American people and members of the Kennedy family would imitate me..."

"In what?"

"In my toleration. My son Munir was killed in Jerusalem in 1946 after a car ran over him. But I pardoned the culprit and gave up my rights, even the amount given to me as compensation, 500 dinars. I donated it to mosques and churches and to the poor. I only hope that toleration will be observed by all during the trial of Sirhan."

"Did you do anything to explain your views in defense of Sirhan?"

UNCLASSIFIED

Enclosure No. 1

"Yes, I sent appeals to President Johnson, the Pope and to U Thant. I appealed to them to work for peace in the Middle East and Vietnam so that the tragedy of Sirhan and Robert Kennedy would not be repeated."

"When do you leave for America to attend the trial?"

"I am studying the matter from all angles, including the financial one and the question of my safety while there."

"That means you are afraid?"

"No. I am not afraid. The matter really requires careful study."

"Your style of talking indicates you are a lawyer?"

"I am a mechanic. The credit for that belongs to the holy books: the Quran, the New Testament and the Old Testament. I studied them all and have them in my house side by side."

"And if I request you to offer a last opinion in this interview...?"

"I say I hope the Arabs will write."

Enclosure No. 2Excerpts from ad-Dustour's Interview with Sirhan

(1) "Bishara Sirhan, 52, is the father of five children and was in charge of a water section under the British Mandate Government in Palestine until 1948. He then came to Amman and worked on various water and mechanics projects until 1957 when he emigrated to the United States with his five children, Sharif, Sa'dallah, Adel, Sirhan, and Munir. Three years ago, he returned alone to his native town, Tayybeh, in the Ramallah area."

(2) "At dawn on June sixth while still asleep, I felt heavy footsteps on the stairs of my house. I awoke and heard the 'moukhtar' (elder) of the village, Fayez Ma'addi, knocking and saying, 'Open the door, Abu Sharif. Don't be afraid. It's Fayez.' I opened the door and Fayez entered with two Israeli soldiers and three civilians, one of whom began to question me in English, which I know well, about my identity and the history of my family and my son, Sirhan. I asked, 'why all these questions?' He answered that he was a correspondent of the NEW YORK TIMES and said, 'Did you hear about Robert Kennedy?' 'Yes,' I said, 'yesterday I heard that someone fired at him in Los Angeles.' The reporter then said, 'Didn't you know it was your son Sirhan who shot him?' I said, 'What do you say? My son killed Kennedy? I think that most unlikely.' When he affirmed the news to me, it was a violent shock. I was furious and sad. The reporter asked, 'what is your opinion on the matter? Do you know anything?' I answered, 'here I am asleep in Tayybeh, a village over 12,000 miles from Los Angeles. Of course I do not know anything. It is an unpleasant, stunning, shocking surprise.' The reporter asked, 'what is your feeling?' I replied, 'If the report is correct, I am sorry for Kennedy and deeply regret the incident and am grieved that this has happened to my son.'"

(3) "As I said before, there is no enmity between the Kennedy and Sirhan families. I want both Arab and American opinion to listen to this statement. Senator Kennedy had two personalities: first, he was a member of the American Kennedy family; second, he was a great American statesman. On the personal level, I am grieved by his death and shall continue to be so. As for Robert Kennedy the politician, that is a different matter. He stated time after time that he wanted certain nations to get stronger and certain nations to get weaker. This, in my opinion, was a great error. I believe thoughtful men all over the world will agree. As a statesman, Kennedy ought to have been balanced in his statements and speeches and ought to have avoided saying things liable to kindle hatred in the Middle East. As a statesman he ought to have supported peace, right and justice in the Middle East without favoring Israel."

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

(4) "I still believe my son is innocent despite the accusations. But even if we suppose he did it, we must examine the motives and reasons that led him to such an act. His love for his homeland and religion must have overcome everything else and incited him to act. I do not support violence or political assassination. But Kennedy was rash in his statements. I say also that the conscience of America, and its courts, and world public opinion will stand by Sirhan."

(5) "Sirhan has seen destruction and death in his own country, which last suffered war in 1967. In spite of the fact that Sirhan left for America in 1957, and lived over ten years in American society, his religion and homeland were constantly on his mind. The late Senator Kennedy was the man who lit the fuse of the mine inside my son Sirhan."

(6) "What is the program of your visit to Jordan?"

"I arrived in Amman today with a one week permit. I want to see to my account in Intra Bank, where I had some money before June 1967. After that I will return to Tayybeh."

"Do you want to go to the United States?"

"I am considering the matter in detail. I intend to hire lawyers to defend my son, but have not yet decided whether I personally will go to America to be with Sirhan during his trial."

SYNOPSIS:

Bureau files reviewed re Russell E. Parsons, Defense Counsel for Sirhan Sirhan, accused assassin of Senator Robert F. Kennedy. Martindale-Hubbell shows Parsons born 1895; obtained legal education University of Southern California (USC), Los Angeles; admitted to bar 1918. Departmental Applicant investigation by Bureau, 1937, indicates born 1893 and attended USC Law School only one year. In 1928, warrants for Parsons' arrest issued in three California counties on bad check charges which were subsequently dismissed. On 1/18/28, Parsons entered guilty plea to charges of obtaining property by false pretenses, received six months' sentence which was suspended and Parsons placed on two years' probation. September, 1934, filed petition in bankruptcy, dismissed March, 1935, without Parsons receiving discharge. Individuals interviewed during investigation advised never known Parsons to be involved in any trouble, considered him capable, energetic, hardworking, forceful, splendid orator, loyal, trustworthy and honest. One attorney advised above check charges resulted from failure of other individuals to deposit money to cover checks.

Parsons served as County Attorney, Beaver City, Utah, for two terms beginning in 1917, and returned to Los Angeles in mid-1930's. He has become nationally known as trial lawyer in criminal field.

In 1938, joined Los Angeles County District Attorneys Office where he served as top prosecutor. In 1950, he was "people's candidate" in mayoralty recall election against Mayor Bowron, which recall failed. In 1942, he was one of the attorneys for officials of Mankind United, indicted under Sedition Statutes. In August, 1940, quoted in press as prosecuting murder case in which he alleged communists killed an anticommunist during communist attempts to infiltrate and destroy a union. Also, in 1940, was active in organizing "America's Sixth Column, Inc.," whose purpose was to fight and expose subversive and un-American activities.

In February, 1959, was featured speaker at meeting sponsored by National Lawyers Guild (NLG) of California. (National Lawyers Guild cited by House Committee on Un-American Activities.) During 1952, was one of several attorneys under investigation by Internal Revenue Service for possible income tax evasion on basis of "fee-splitting" with Los Angeles bail bondsmen. Grand Jury did not substantiate allegation.

Since at least 1950 Parsons has been active in representing in a legal capacity, criminals in the Los Angeles area, particularly Joseph, Fred and Alfred Sica, all described as Los Angeles hoodlums, particularly active in the bookmaking field. In Fall of 1950, was described by one reliable criminal source as among individuals source classified as "power men for a fix or a connection" for gambling or criminal elements.

Memo to Mr. DeLoach

Re: Assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy,
Los Angeles, California

DETAILS:

Pursuant to my memorandum to you captioned as above dated June 21, 1968, Bureau files have been reviewed concerning Russell E. Parsons, who according to news releases is Sirhan Sirhan's new attorney. Grant Cooper, whom we have been most confidentially advised will be associated with Parsons in Sirhan's defense, is being made the subject of a separate memorandum.

BACKGROUND:

Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory indicates Parsons was born in 1895 and obtained his college and legal training at the University of Southern California, being admitted to law practice in 1918.

In September, 1937, the Bureau initiated a Departmental Applicant investigation concerning Russell Edward Parsons, which investigation was discontinued prior to completion. During the investigation which was conducted, information was developed concerning Russell Edward Parsons, who it is believed is identical with the attorney for Sirhan Sirhan although there are discrepancies between the investigative results and data in Martindale-Hubbell concerning his date of birth and education.

The Los Angeles Bureau of Vital Statistics disclosed the birth of a son on 2/8/93 in Los Angeles. Parents were shown as Mr. and Mrs. A.H. Parsons and no name was shown on the records for the individual who was born. Parsons was educated at Los Angeles High School, graduating in 1913, and attended the University of Southern California Law School for one year, 1915-16, taking only two courses, one of which he failed. These records do not indicate any further attendance by Parsons at the University of Southern California. There was no record of any attendance by Parsons at the University of California at Los Angeles.

Memo to Mr. DeLoach

Re: Assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy,
Los Angeles, California

In 1928, warrants for Parsons' arrest were issued by Riverside, San Bernardino and Imperial Counties, California, on bad check charges which were subsequently dismissed. However, on 1/18/28, Parsons pleaded "guilty" to charges of obtaining property by false pretenses, was sentenced to six months in jail, which sentence was suspended, and Parsons was placed on probation for two years. He was admitted to the California State Bar Association in December, 1928.

In September, 1934, he filed a petition in bankruptcy, which case was dismissed in March of 1935 without Parsons receiving a discharge. Individuals interviewed during the investigation, including judges, attorneys, clients and friends of Parsons, advised they had never known him to be involved in any trouble, considered him capable, energetic, hardworking, forceful, a splendid orator, loyal, trustworthy and honest. One attorney at Riverside, California, advised that the check charges mentioned above resulted from the failure of other individuals to carry out their agreement to deposit money to cover the checks Parsons wrote.

In 1940, Parsons, as Deputy District Attorney in Los Angeles, was handling prosecution concerning State officials and copies of his arrest record were made available to the press and public in Los Angeles. Following the termination of the trial, the Los Angeles County Civil Service Commission investigated the charges against Parsons and reported favorably concerning him. (77-9060)

ACTIVITIES:

Miscellaneous. The Los Angeles Office advised 6/20/68 that Parsons first experience in public office was as County Attorney in Beaver City, Utah, in 1917, where he served two two-year terms and also served as City Attorney for Beaver City. He reportedly returned to Los Angeles in the mid-1930's to practice law and has become nationally known as a trial lawyer in the area of criminal law. In 1938 he joined the Los Angeles

District Attorneys Office, where he served as top prosecutor assigned to special cases. In 1950 he permitted his name to be entered as "people's candidate" in a mayoralty recall election against Mayor Bowron, which recall failed. In recent years he has devoted his time to the practice of both civil and criminal cases.

Mankind United. In 1942, Arthur L. Bell and other leaders of Mankind United were indicted for violation of the Sedition Statutes and Parsons was one of the attorneys for the defendants. It is noted one of the other individuals representing the defendants was Abraham Lincoln Wirin, who has been active in the American Civil Liberties Union in the Los Angeles area. In January, 1946, Bell, accompanied by Parsons, called at the Bureau, at which time Bell complained of activities of Agents in connection with the Mankind United case, alleging invasion of his privacy, surreptitious searches, tapping of telephones, etc. At the completion of the interview, during which Bell and Parsons were straightened out, they both agreed they had been misinformed and had been laboring under serious misapprehensions and Bell expressed complete satisfaction with regard to all the points he had raised. (65-2682-483,778)

Anticommunist Activities. The 8/5/40 issue of the "Los Angeles Daily News" quoted Parsons, then Deputy District Attorney, Los Angeles, concerning prosecution of a old murder case which Parsons stated resulted from the investigation of communist activities in the San Pedro, California, area. He stated that the murdered individual was engaged in anticommunist activities and had been killed by communists. Parsons was quoted as saying "We can prove conclusively this murder was committed in the communist attempts to infiltrate into the AFL and destroy the union." (62-44462-1370X1)

In 1940, Parsons fostered a corporation known as America's Sixth Column, Inc., which corporation was formed to fight and expose by whatever legitimate means necessary, all subversive or un-American activities and the proponents thereof. The Los Angeles Office advised in March, 1941, that Parsons had been interviewed in connection with another matter, at which time he had furnished information concerning his affiliation with America's Sixth Column and expressed his desire to cooperate with the Bureau in any way possible. National Lawyers Guild. Although the foregoing paragraph indicated Parsons' anticommunist activities, the 2/15/59 edition of "Los Angeles Times" reported on a State-Wide Conference on Criminal Law Reform under the sponsorship of the National Lawyers Guild of California. The article indicated that Russell E. Parsons, well-known local criminal attorney, was one of the featured speakers on the topic of "Pre-Trial Discovery in Criminal Cases." A source in the Intelligence Division of the Los Angeles Police Department at that time called Parsons a "shyster - and a clever one," adding that he specialized in defending bookmakers. The National Lawyers Guild has been cited as a communist front by the House Committee on Un-American Activities. (63-4296-26-306)

Internal Revenue Service. During 1962, the Internal Revenue Service in Los Angeles conducted an investigation concerning "fee-splitting" between bondsmen and attorneys. One of the attorneys under investigation for "fee-splitting" and possible income tax evasion was Russell Parsons. Numerous individuals were called before the Federal Grand Jury in connection with this investigation which failed to indicate any evidence to substantiate the allegations. (62-9-26-427, pgs. 18-19)

Legal Representation of Criminals. Joseph Sica in 1950 was active together with his brothers, in criminal activities, primarily bookmaking, in the Los Angeles area and Russell Parsons represented Sica in a legal capacity. In connection with Parsons' candidacy for Mayor of Los Angeles, as previously mentioned, allegations were received that Sica and his associates collected campaign funds ostensibly for Parsons' campaign. In the Fall of 1950, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past identified certain individuals in the Los Angeles community whom he described as "borderline operators" in obtaining "juice," and whom he classified as "power men for a fix or a connection" for gambling or criminal elements. The source stated that many of these individuals were reported as community leaders but still lent their assistance to such criminal elements. Among the individuals so identified by this source was Russell Parsons, Los Angeles criminal attorney and former candidate for mayor in the attempted recall election of Mayor Bowron. (66-17080-5, pg.9)

In May, 1951, Joe and Fred Sica, who were operating as bookmakers in Los Angeles for a considerable period of time and who were considered to be part of an Italian group under the general control of Jack Dragna, were arrested on a charge of conspiracy to commit a felony, bookmaking. Parsons was identified as Sica's attorney. (62-75147-26-397, pg. 64)

In 1953, Joseph Sica was considered by the Los Angeles Office as a top hoodlum and Parsons was still representing him as his attorney. (63-127-1)

In 1959, Russell E. Parsons was reportedly representing Alfonso Rocco Pizzichino, Los Angeles hoodlum, in connection with a contempt of court charge. (92-3876-10, pg. 9)

As late as 1962, Parsons was representing Alfred Sica, Los Angeles hoodlum, in connection with a possible income tax violation on which Sica had been indicted. (92-3930-259)

Memorandum of Conversation

DATE: June 19, 1968

SUBJECT: The Case of Sirhan Bishara Sirhan

PARTICIPANTS: His Excellency Abdul Hamid Sharaf, Ambassador of Jordan
Mr. Robert B. Houghton, Country Director, NEA/ARN

COPIES TO: INR (10) S/S Embassy, Beirut
L SCA Embassy, London
ARN (3) Embassy, Amman
H Consulate General, Jerusalem
U Embassy, Tel Aviv

The Jordan Ambassador called on me this morning at his request to discuss the current status of the Sirhan Bishara Sirhan case in California. He was particularly interested in discussing the implications to Sirhan's trial should four Jordanian lawyers come to the United States to either assist the defense of or actually to defend Sirhan in the courts. He said that he was opposed to the lawyers' coming, as it would interject into the case a political element, which we have all been endeavoring to avoid. He mentioned that he had sent a strong message to his Government recommending that if at all possible the lawyers be dissuaded from coming to the U. S. for the above purpose. Now that the Federation of Lawyers in Amman had apparently made a decision to do something about the Sirhan case (he reminded me that the Federation was politically oriented), there was a limit to how much influence the Jordan Government could exert on the lawyers because they were now committed to take some action. He mentioned that he was returning to Jordan for approximately a week in the next few days and that he would do what he could about the situation. The best that could be expected, however, would probably be to persuade the lawyers or the Federation to finance the hiring of a highly qualified American lawyer and to nominate one of their own members to the United States to act as observer during the trial. He was not even sure that this could be arranged.

I told him that we felt strongly that the Jordanian lawyers should not come to the U. S. for the very reason that he had offered. We, however, were to some extent caught on the horns of a dilemma in trying to persuade the lawyers against coming because we also did not want to open ourselves to the charge that we were denying Sirhan the right to request a lawyer of his choice, which could include Jordanian lawyers. The Jordan Government could probably state the concern we both shared more effectively than we could. We were both interested in insuring that Sirhan received a fair trial and that no political development enter the picture to prejudice a fair trial. I told him that I hoped that he could state his case as strongly as possible in Amman. He said he would.

He asked me when the trial began. After consulting with Mr. Neuman in L, I informed him by telephone that on June 28 the defendant would have to plead, i.e., guilty, not guilty, etc. According to the law, the trial must begin sixty days after the indictment, which I was informed was around June 6 or 7. This period could be prolonged by agreement between the defense and prosecuting attorneys. I told him that the District Attorney in California ventured the guess that the trial would probably begin one-and-a-half to two months after June 28.

The Ambassador called me subsequently and said that the Jordan Honorary Consul George Zuraykat had contacted Sirhan on June 19. He said the authorities treated the Honorary Consul very well, but the interview resulted in little more than the Consul's finding out that Sirhan was in good health and was being treated well. A satisfactory conversation between the two was prevented because, according to the Jordan Ambassador, there was a glass partition between the Honorary Consul and Sirhan and the Consul had to talk to him by telephone. The Honorary Consul was enjoined that he had to speak in English or the conversation would be cut. The Ambassador wondered if this were normal procedure and if it would have made a difference if a member of his Embassy had tried to talk with Sirhan rather than the Honorary Consul. I told him I was not certain of what the law permitted, although I was somewhat surprised by the restrictions imposed. I told him that I would consult with our Legal Adviser's Office and would call him back.

Re San Francisco airtel to Los Angeles 6/20/68.

Enclosed for Sacramento is one copy of a pamphlet entitled "The Grapes", written by GARY ALLEN.

For the information of the Bureau and Sacramento, referenced San Francisco airtel contained the following information:

On 6/20/68, DIETER W. BAYER, 1332 Grand Avenue, Pacifica, California, home telephone 355-0251, appeared at this office with the enclosed reprint and said that he believed SIRHAN B. SIRHAN appears in the photo on Page 4.

BAYER said he has been trying to contact GARY ALLEN in Los Angeles through the John Birch Society and has been unable to do so to date. He hoped that ALLEN would be able to reveal the source of the picture as the article does not show this.

BAYER further indicated that he is an amateur photographer and he enlarged this picture and is satisfied in his own mind that it is identical to SIRHAN. BAYER said that he obtained the reprint from a public source, stating that he is collecting articles on communism in this country. He is an escapee from East Germany and has been in this country since 1961.
