CHRISTIAN has been advised that the Los Angeles Division will accept any information he sees fit to volunteer, and it is pointed out that the 11-page enclosed document was volunteered by CHRISTIAN. No information will be given out to CHRISTIAN, and it is not anticipated that any further meetings with CHRISTIAN will be had.

With respect to CHRISTIAN's assertion that SIRHAN had been to Caliente, Mexico, at the race track just prior to the assassination, investigation to date has not placed him in that area or established any loss of funds.

Two copies are being furnished to San Francisco in view of information concerning JERRY OWEN and WILLIAM TURNER and GEORGE DAVIS, all of whom are familiar to that office.

One copy of the LHM is being furnished to the U. S. Attorney at Los Angeles in view of his continuing interest in this matter.

It should be noted that CHRISTIAN has given his views at length to the Los Angeles Police Department, who have expended considerable time in attempting to corroborate or refute, and they have concluded they are without value and are currently preparing a summary of this area, which will be made available when completed.

SIRHAN BISHARA SIRHAN

On April 22, 1969, an individual who identified himself as Mr. "Alfie" telephonically contacted a representative of the FBI in Los Angeles. He advised he was a "journalist" and had been recommended by "Bob Kaiser."

"Bob Kaiser" is identical with Robert Blair Kaiser, 2762 Woodshire, Hollywood, California, and a member of the defense team representing Sirhan Bishara Sirhan. In that capacity Kaiser had access to all the defense files as well as having been permitted to interview Sirhan and other members of his family.

When "Alfie" called, he stated he desired to speak with a Special Agent of the FBI since he felt that he had something to offer in connection with the investigation of the assassination of the late Robert F. Kennedy.

Correspondingly on April 28, 1969, an arrangement was made to meet with "Alfie" at which time he first introduced himself to the Special Agent as "Ed Alfie". He explained he had been doing some checking and investigation into the activities of Jerry Owen. He stated that he was referring to Jerry Oliver Owen, a religious personage who has sometimes referred to himself as "Shepherd of the Hills." According to "Alfie", Owen also referred to himself as "The Walking Bible."

Shortly after the discussion began "Alfie" advised that his true name was actually John Christian, and he explained he has been conducting investigation into the assassination, centering around Owen, and has come to the conclusion that Owen's appearance on the scene surrounding the assassination of Robert Kennedy must be considered suspect. He further advised that in his opinion the story which Owen furnished to representatives of the Los Angeles Police Department shortly after the assassination could certainly be considered or calculated to convey ulterior ideas. Christian explained he was referring to Owen having advised police authorities about an individual he picked up hitchhiking in his truck on June 3, 1968, who resembled Sirhan. In attempting to pursue his theory of a conspiracy, Christian talked at quite some length concerning that particular aspect of the investigation and explained that he had been in contact with "Charlie" O'Brien, the Deputy California State Attorney General, Los Angeles, California. In addition to Mr. O'Brien, he has been in touch with Jesse Unruh, current Minority Leader of the California Assembly at Sacramento, California. He also mentioned that he has been in touch with one Frank Burns, a Los Angeles attorney, and has attempted to discuss his theory with Captain Hugh Brown of the Los Angeles Police Department, and Deputy Los Angeles County District Attorney David Fitts.

Christian went on to explain that one of the taped interviews in his possession was conducted by former FBI Special Agent William Turner, who conducted the interview with Owen in Northern California.

Christian in his continuing discussion regarding Owen, stated that Owen has used various names and has been affiliated in some type of "religious" pursuits for a long period of time. Owen has, in the past, according to Christian, utilized the legal services of Attorney George Davis, also from the Northern California area. Christian explained he felt Owen was assigned to volunteer the story which he furnished to the Los Angeles Police Department to distract authorities from other more pertinent areas of the investigation. He went on to explain that Owen has connections and other involvements with elements in the United States which he characterized as "paramilitary" in nature; "right wing" and the "underworld." He went on further to state that a man with Owen's criminal record would not involve himself in the assassination of a presidential candidate unless the stakes were high enough.

SIRHAN BISHARA SIRHAN

Christian stated that Owen has had affiliations with the Minute Men Organization in the Northern California area. He also stated that Owen, in the past, has been affiliated to some degree with Carl Mc Intire, a well-known religious figure.

Dr. Carl Mc Intire, is President of the International Council of Churches, who is originally from Collingswood, New Jersey. Dr. Mc Intire has been active over numerous radio stations throughout the United States engaging in religious broadcasts.

During his discussion Christian also mentioned one Eugene Bradley as also being affiliated with Dr. Mc Intire. The Eugene Bradley to whom Christian was referring is E. Eugene Bradley who recently figured prominently in newspapers articles in the Los Angeles area as being an individual sought by New Orleans, Louisiana, District Attorney James Garrison, according to Christian.

Christian explained he has attempted to discuss the Owen aspect of this investigation with responsible members of the Los Angeles Police Department, none of whom will speak with him concerning it. Likewise members of the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office, have refused to comment to him regarding his theory.

With respect to William Turner, mentioned above, Christian explained he introduced Turner to Attorney George Davis and it was by that means that Turner was able to interview Owen following the assassination of Mr. Kennedy. He explained Turner had written a book concerning the assassination, which had been submitted to a publisher in New York, and which publisher had returned to Turner unpublished, in about December 1968. According to Christian, Turner had been paid in advance $5,000 in connection with the writing of the book, which money he could not see fit to return to the publisher.

Christian stated that in his inquiry into this particular phase of the investigation, he determined that Sirhan had been to the race track at Caliente, Mexico,

shortly prior to the assassination of Robert Kennedy, where he allegedly gambled heavily on the horses at that time.

Christian explained further that none of the authorities with whom he has spoken concerning the foregoing, are in sympathy or agreement with his belief that a conspiracy exists, or that a conspiracy exists involving Owen.

During the interview, Christian continually mentioned "Charlie O'Brien", stating that he had access to files and investigation conducted by law enforcement authorities, through O'Brien. He stated that on one occasion, he met with O'Brien in the latter's Los Angeles office. Present at that time, were representatives of CBS TV. On that occasion, O'Brien had just learned that Christian had come from the Los Angeles Police Department where he had talked with Captain Brown and Lieutenant Roy Keene, of the Special Unit investigating the assassination of Robert Kennedy. Upon so learning, O'Brien became quite upset with Christian for having gone to the Los Angeles Police Department and berated him for having done so.

Christian has advised that he resides at 840 North Larrabee, Building Number 2, Apartment 318, Los Angeles, California. He has telephone numbers 659-1439, and 279-1853.

With respect to the investigation of Oliver Jerry Owen, the following is being set forth:

Owen voluntarily appeared at the University Division of the Los Angeles Police Department on June 5, 1968, at which time he advised police officers that on June 3, 1968, he had picked up hitchhikers with his truck in Los Angeles, California, and had driven with them to the vicinity of the Ambassador Hotel on the afternoon of June 3, 1968. One of those persons, according to Owen at that time, strongly resembled Sirhan Bishara Sirhan.

SIRHAN BISHARA SIRHAN

Los Angeles Police Department has thoroughly investigated that aspect of this investigation and has concluded that Owen was not actually in contact with Sirhan as suggested by him.

He further advised that in his opinion the story which Owen furnished to representatives of the Los Angeles Police Department shortly after the assassination could certainly be considered or calculated to convey ulterior ideas. Christian explained he was referring to Owen having advised police authorities about an individual he picked up hitchhiking in his truck on June 3, 1968, who resembled Sirhan. In attempting to pursue his theory of a conspiracy, Christian talked at quite some length concerning that particular aspect of the investigation and explained that he had been in contact with "Charlie" O'Brien, the Deputy California State Attorney General, Los Angeles, California. In addition to Mr. O'Brien, he has been in touch with Jesse Unruh, current Minority Leader of the California Assembly at Sacramento, California. He also mentioned that he has been in touch with one Frank Burns, a Los Angeles attorney, and has attempted to discuss his theory with Captain Hugh Brown of the Los Angeles Police Department, and Deputy Los Angeles County District Attorney David Fitts.

Christian went on to explain that one of the taped interviews in his possession was conducted by former FBI Special Agent William Turner, who conducted the interview with Owen in Northern California.

Christian in his continuing discussion regarding Owen, stated that Owen has used various names and has been affiliated in some type of "religious" pursuits for a long period of time. Owen has, in the past, according to Christian, utilized the legal services of Attorney George Davis, also from the Northern California area. Christian explained he felt Owen was assigned to volunteer the story which he furnished to the Los Angeles Police Department to distract authorities from other more pertinent areas of the investigation. He went on to explain that Owen has connections and other involvements with elements in the United States which he characterized as "paramilitary" in nature; "right wing" and the "underworld." He went on further to state that a man with Owen's criminal record would not involve himself in the assassination of a presidential candidate unless the stakes were high enough.

SIRHAN BISHARA SIRHAN

Christian stated that Owen has had affiliations with the Minute Men Organization in the Northern California area. He also stated that Owen, in the past, has been affiliated to some degree with Carl Mc Intire, a well-known religious figure.

Dr. Carl Mc Intire. is President of the International Council of Churches, who is originally from Collingswood, New Jersey. Dr. Mc Intire has been active over numerous radio stations throughout the United States engaging in religious broadcasts.

During his discussion Christian also mentioned one Eugene Bradley as also being affiliated with Dr. Mc Intire. The Eugene Bradley to whom Christian was referring is E. Eugene Bradley who recently figured prominently in newspapers articles in the Los Angeles area as being an individual sought by New Orleans, Louisiana, District Attorney James Garrison, according to Christian.

Christian explained he has attempted to discuss the Owen aspect of this investigation with responsible members of the Los Angeles Police Department, none of whom will speak with him concerning it. Likewise members of the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office, have refused to comment to him regarding his theory.

With respect to William Turner, mentioned above, Christian explained he introduced Turner to Attorney George Davis and it was by that means that Turner was able to interview Owen following the assassination of Mr. Kennedy. He explained Turner had written a book concerning the assassination, which had been submitted to a publisher in New York, and which publisher had returned to Turner unpublished, in about December 1968. According to Christian, Turner had been paid in advance $5,000 in connection with the writing of the book, which money he could not see fit to return to the publisher.

Christian stated that in his inquiry into this particular phase of the investigation, he determined that Sirhan had been to the race track at Caliente, Mexico, shortly prior to the assassination of Robert Kennedy, where he allegedly gambled heavily on the horses at that time.

Christian explained further that none of the authorities with whom he has spoken concerning the foregoing, are in sympathy or agreement with his belief that a conspiracy exists, or that a conspiracy exists involving Owen.

During the interview, Christian continually mentioned "Charlie O'Brien", stating that he had access to files and investigation conducted by law enforcement authorities, through O'Brien. He stated that on one occasion, he met with O'Brien in the latter's Los Angeles office. Present at that time, were representatives of CBS TV. On that occasion, O'Brien had just learned that Christian had come from the Los Angeles Police Department where he had talked with Captain Brown and Lieutenant Roy Keene, of the Special Unit investigating the assassination of Robert Kennedy. Upon so learning, O'Brien became quite upset with Christian for having gone to the Los Angeles Police Department and berated him for having done so.

Christian has advised that he resides at 840 North Larrabee, Building Number 2, Apartment 318, Los Angeles, California. He has telephone numbers 659-1439, and 279-1853.

With respect to the investigation of Oliver Jerry Owen, the following is being set forth:

Owen voluntarily appeared at the University Division of the Los Angeles Police Department on June 5, 1968, at which time he advised police officers that on June 3, 1968, he had picked up hitchhikers with his truck in Los Angeles, California, and had driven with them to the vicinity of the Ambassador Hotel on the afternoon of June 3, 1968. One of those persons, according to Owen at that time, strongly resembled Sirhan Bishara Sirhan.
