THIS MAN IS YOUR MAN, THIS MAN IS MY MAN

First Verse and chorus

This man is your man, This man is my man
From California to the New York Island
From the Redwood Forrest to the Gulf Stream Waters
That man is ROBERT KENNEDY.

Second Verse

Let us stop the fighting, start reuniting
Increase our labors, to help our neighbors.
This nation needs now a man who leads now
That man is ROBERT KENNEDY.

CHORUS

Third Verse

He walks with all men, He talks with all men.
In times of crisis he is the right man.
For peace in our land, for peace in all lands
THE MAN IS ROBERT KENNEDY.

Paradoxical Boh

PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES are out to get votes, and some of them do not realize their own inconsistency.

Just the other day, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy of New York made a speech in Los Angeles which certainly was received with fever by Protestant, Catholic, and Jewish groups which have been staunchly supporting the cause of Israel against Egypt and the Arab countries.

Kennedy said: "We cannot — and will not — permit the Soviet Union to achieve an imbalance in the Middle East. We can and will fully assist Israel — with arms if necessary — to meet the threat of massive Soviet military buildups. We cannot — and will not — render local defenseless in the face of aggression."

But during the last three years, on the other hand, the Soviet Union has been sending missiles to North Vietnam as well as bombing planes and other weapons of war amounting to a total of at least a billion dollars a year. Yet no demand has been made by any of the presidential candidates that economic sanctions be taken against the Soviet Union and other Communist countries.

SEN. KENNEDY has also declared the United States should use its power during inevitable crises "only as a strategic reserve against the most serious of threats." He adds:

"Vietnam is only Vietnam. It will not swing the fate of Asia or America — much less the fate of the world."

Lots of people, however, think the situation in the Middle East is not nearly as dangerous as the situation in Southeast Asia. Also there are many members of Congress who feel that, if it is proper for the United States to render military support to Israel in the Middle East, it is just as necessary to protect the countries of Southeast Asia against aggression.

Sen. Kennedy, in a speech in Portland, Ore., last month, criticized the administration's attitude even more severely when he said:

"American foreign policy has become identified with power, and in that situation we have forgotten our purpose."

"In the unilateral exercise of our overwhelming power, we isolated ourselves. To many of our traditional allies and neutral friends, we behaved as a superpower ignoring our own historical commitment to a decent respect for the opinions of mankind."

Kennedy, in his speech on Monday, nevertheless recommended a strong policy in the Middle East and favored aid to Israel "with arms if necessary" to meet the threat of the Soviets.

OPPOSITION to the war in Vietnam has been expressed by presidential candidates appealing to voters who are fearful that their sons may be drafted or to the families of those young men who are already in the Armed Forces of the United States in Southeast Asia. A large number of people in this country are deeply concerned with the events in the Middle East, particularly with the fate of Israel. Hence the political candidates see a big advantage in proclaiming their firm support of American intervention in the Middle East.

President Johnson, in announcing that he would not accept nomination for re-election, had hoped to take the Vietnam issue out of the campaign, but foreign policy seems to have remained at issue in the speeches by the two Democratic candidates, Sen. Kennedy of New York and Sen. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota.
