In re: MIRZ BISHARA SALAMON SIRBAN

IN DEPORTATION PROCEEDINGS

APPEAL

ON BEHALF OF RESPONDENT: David C. Marcus, Esq.
215 West Fifth Street
Los Angeles, Calif. 90013
(Case scheduled for oral argument on February 27, 1968 but counsel failed to appear)

CHARGES:

Order: Section 241(a)(11), I&N Act (8 USC 1251
(a)(11)) - Conviction of violation of law relating to illicit posse-sion of marijuana in violation of Section 11530 of the Health and Safety Code of the State of California

Lodged: None

APPLICATION: Reopen for consideration of termination of proceedings

The case comes forward on appeal from the denial by the special inquiry officer of respondent's motion to reopen the proceedings and vacate his decision of July 11, 1967, under which respondent was found deportable as charged, denied the privilege of voluntary departure, and was ordered deported to Jordan.

A- [redacted]
The respondent is a 20-year-old single male alien, a native of Palestine and a citizen of Jordan, who entered the United States at New York on or about January 11, 1957 at which time he was admitted as an immigrant. Respondent denies that he is deportable as charged.

The record establishes through a certified copy of information, Minutes of October 13, 1966 and Minutes of December 1, 1966 that a criminal action was instituted against the respondent by the filing of an information in the Superior Court of the State of California, for the County of Los Angeles in which the respondent was accused of the crime of violation of Section 11530, Health and Safety Code, committed on or about June 10, 1966 for unlawful possession of marijuana (Count 1) and a violation of Section 11531, Health and Safety Code of California committed on the same day, for unlawfully offering to sell, furnish and give away marijuana (Count 2). The Superior Court on October 13, 1966 found respondent guilty as charged on both counts. On December 1, 1966 the Superior Court suspended the proceedings and the respondent was granted probation for five years, a condition of which was that he spend the first year in the county jail (Exhibit 2).

On May 25, 1967 the court entered a "Minute Order" in the aforementioned criminal action which stated as follows: "Finding of 'Guilty' is vacated and defendant is certified to Juvenile (sic) Court, Remanded" (Exhibit 4).

After the Superior Court certified and remanded the case to the Juvenile Court as aforesaid, the Probation Department on July 13, 1967 filed a petition with the Juvenile Court to have respondent adjudged and declared a ward of the court and dealt with as such. On July 14, 1967 the Juvenile Court in a "Findings and Order of Adjudication" accepted the certification to it of this case and granted the Probation Department's petition to have respondent declared a ward of the Juvenile Court. Neither of these two documents is a part of the record of this case.

A [redacted]

Section 503 of the Welfare and Institutions Code of the State of California provides:

"An order adjudging a minor to be a ward of the Juvenile Court shall not be deemed a conviction of a crime for any purpose, nor shall a proceeding in the Juvenile Court be deemed a criminal proceeding."

Thus, if the legal position of the respondent is that of a ward of the Juvenile Court pursuant to the aforementioned proceedings he would thus not be enumerable to deportation under Section 241(a)(11), Immigration and Nationality Act because under the above quoted Section 503 there could be no conviction for a crime by the Juvenile Court.

The Immigration and Naturalization Service contends that the Superior Court was without authority to enter its Minute Order of May 25, 1967 in which the finding of guilty was vacated and the case certified to the Juvenile Court for further action. It is contended that when the Superior Court found respondent guilty on October 13, 1966, and an appeal was not taken within the time stipulated by law, the verdict of guilty became final and could not be vacated or changed some six months later by the Superior Court simply certifying the case to another court. The Service contends that this being the case respondent is deportable as charged.

After careful consideration of the premises we will reopen the proceedings in order to have introduced into the record the recent proceedings of the Juvenile Court relative to the case certified to it and also to afford the Immigration and Naturalization Service an opportunity to establish that the Superior Court acted without authority when it vacated the finding of guilty and certify the case to the Juvenile Court.

arrest, been dealing in bulk quantities of marijuana and the police were aware of a previous sale of these cans of it, each can containing enough for 25 to 30 cigarettes. It is stated that the witness in the previous case was afraid to testify as it was not presented.

Deportation proceedings were commenced at a hearing before a Special Inquiry Officer of this Service on January 24, 1967, at the Los Angeles County Jail. Mr. Sizton was represented by counsel and the hearing has presently been continued until February 14, 1967.

When the decision of the Special Inquiry Officer has been received, I will be happy to advise you further. It is contemplated that if ordered deported, travel documents for return to Jerusalem, Jordan, will be supplied for.

→ *ADD/INV:- In examining the case of Munir B. SIRSHAN, A [REDACTED] who is under deportation proceedings on narcotic charges, I noted the probation report in the file which states this man has a brother named Sharis, who was arrested in Pasadena December 18, 1963, for attempted murder. As a result of investigation this brother was finally placed on probation for using a hack saw to saw the hydraulic lines through on the car of a female acquaintance. Please check Sharis file and ascertain if there is a deportation case. Although Sharis came in with an immigrant visa on 1-12-57, there may be other matters.

February 1, 1967

Dear Mr. Smith:

This refers to your letter of January 27, 1967, concerning the information case of Mr. Marie S. Sirhan, [REDACTED] to whom our file A- [REDACTED] relates.

Mr. Sirhan is single and was born in Jerusalem on [REDACTED]. He entered the United States on an immigrant visa obtained in Jerusalem on January 12, 1957, in company with his mother, two brothers and a sister. He resided, since about 1962, at 696 East Howard Street, Pasadena, California, with his mother and brother.

On October 12, 1966, in the Superior Court of the State of California, for the County of Los Angeles, he was convicted following a plea of "not guilty", for violation of Section 11360 "possession of marijuana", and, 11361 "sale of marijuana", of the Health & Safety Code for the State of California. The proceedings were suspended on December 1, 1966, by the Court. Following submission of a probation report, probation was granted for five years, the first year to be spent in the County Jail. His tentative release date is August 12, 1967.

Mr. Sirhan has stated to our officers that he has not seen nor heard from his father since he was nine years of age. His father is apparently still in Jerusalem, where he now resides. His mother is said to be a nursery school employee. Prior to trial, Mr. Sirhan had been employed for about two weeks as a sales-clerk at Nash's Department Store, Pasadena, California.

It appears that previously, for about a year and a half, he had almost no employment being supported by his mother.

The matter under which he was convicted apparently involved negotiations over a can of marijuana and discussions concerning the future sale of a kilo of marijuana. Information has been received that the subject had, prior to his

Dear George:

Enclosed is a copy of a letter which is self-explanatory. You know my position in these matters. I always hesitate to try and help people who have been convicted of a crime such as this.

The above-named has been here a good many years and it seems like he ought to know enough to be good. By the same token, I don't know where he is going to go if we deport him.

Would you be kind enough to review the file and let me have whatever information I am entitled to in order that I can determine whether or not I am justified in introducing private legislation on his behalf.

Sincerely yours,

Hon. H. Allen Smith, M.C.
House Office Building
Washington, D.C.

Dear Congressman Smith:

Mrs. Mary B. Sirhan, who resides in your Congressional District at 696 East Howard Street, Pasadena, California 91104, has asked me to write to you on behalf of her son, Munir B. Sirhan.

Apparently her son, Munir Sirhan, has been convicted of possession of marijuana and is presently serving one year in county jail as a condition of probation. He has been notified that deportation proceedings will be brought against him because of his conviction.

Upon looking into the situation for her, I was unable to find any provision for administrative discretion or waiver of conviction such as would apply to persons convicted of less serious crimes (?) such as bank robbery, rape, etc. It is my understanding that the only recourse to prevent a deportation order is by means of a special bill or a presidential pardon.

In requesting you to sponsor a special bill, she wishes you to consider the following matters:

(1) The members of the family were refugees from Israeli aggression. They fled their native country of TransJordan, and entered the United States under Jordanian passports though they had never lived in Jordan, but had no other country to call home.

(2) When the family entered the United States in 1956, Munir was only eight years old. He has never known any other country as a home, and, indeed, the country of his rightful citizenship no longer exists. If deported he could only be sent to a country foreign to him.

(3) Munir does not speak any language except English, and all of his relatives and friends are in the United States. If he were to be sent to a foreign country, he would be banished in every practical sense just as though he were a native born citizen of the United States.

(4) Munir must pay for his mistake, but without detracting from the seriousness of the offence, it should be noted that circumstances of the offence indicated he was being used as a pawn by other persons. A punishment of one year in jail is severe enough without adding to it exile from the country which is in fact, if not technically, his home.

(5) The judge who sentenced Munir must have felt that he had rehabilitation potential and that he could become a good member of the community -- otherwise he would not have been granted probation.

Mrs. Sirhan would write to you herself, but she is afraid that you might not understand her English well enough to answer her requests and prayers. On behalf of Mrs. Sirhan, I therefore ask you to make this matter one of personal interest and concern.

Yours very truly,

JERRY COONS

The respondent is appealing, and is requesting oral argument. He was found deportable under section 241(a)(11).

The issue involved is whether the respondent may circumvent Section of A-7-, 8 I&N Dec. 429, by an order of the sentencing court concerning that the "guilty" finding is being vacated and defendant certified to the Juvenile Court. The issue was raised by the Special Inquiry Officer adversely to the respondent. The issue is a novel one, and it is requested that the Service be represented at oral argument.

Enclosed is a copy of record of proceeding.

Munir Rishqan Salwan Sirhan - Request for Oral Argument

Attention: Regional Counsel

This case presents the novel question of whether the Service can ignore a court action which it is believed is outside the jurisdiction of the court but which was intended to set aside a conviction upon which an order of deportation is based.

The Special Inquiry Officer in this case has supported and upheld the Government's contention that the Superior Court had acted improperly in setting aside a finding of guilt and remanding the case to the Juvenile Court.

For the reasons set forth above, it is urged that the Appellate Trial Attorney should represent the Service in the appeal before the Board of Immigration Appeals.

Attached is a copy of the record of proceeding for use of the Appellate Trial Attorney.

INSTRUCTIONS

- 1. Fees. This notice of appeal must be accompanied by the prescribed fees: for appeal from a decision in an exclusion or deportation proceeding $25; for an appeal from any other decision $10. (Only a single fee need be paid if two or more persons are covered by a single decision.) Attach money order or check, payable to the "Immigration and Naturalization Service, Department of Justice." Do NOT send cash. If this form is filed in Guam, make remittance payable to the "Treasury, Guam;" if filed in the Virgin Islands, make remittance payable to "Commissioner of Finance of the Virgin Islands." The fee is required for filing the appeal and is not refundable regardless of the action taken thereon.
- 2. Counsel. In presenting and prosecuting this appeal the appellant may, if he desires, be represented at no expense to the Government by counsel or other duly authorized representatives.
- 3. Briefs. A brief in support of or in opposition to an appeal is not required, but if a brief is filed it shall be in triplicate and submitted to the officer of the Immigration and Naturalization Service having administrative jurisdiction over the case within the time fixed for the appeal or within any other additional period designated by the special inquiry officer or other Service officer who made the decision. Such officer, or the Board for good cause, may extend the time for filing a brief or reply brief. The Board in its discretion may authorize the filing of briefs directly with it, in which event the opposing party shall be allowed a specified time to respond.
- 4. Oral argument. Oral argument in any one case should not extend beyond fifteen (15) minutes, unless arrangements for additional time are made with the Board in advance of the hearing.

An appellant will not be released from detention or permitted to enter the United States to present oral argument to the Board but may make arrangements to have someone represent him before the Board, and unless such arrangements are made at the time the appeal is taken, the Board will not calendar the case for argument.
- 5. Summary dismissal of appeals. The Board may deny oral argument and summarily dismiss any appeal in any deportation proceeding in which (i) the party concerned fails to specify the reason for his appeal on the reverse side of this form, (ii) the only reason specified by the party concerned for his Appeal involves a finding of fact or conclusion of law which was conceded by him at the hearing, or (iii) the appeal is from an order that grants the party concerned the relief which he requested.
- 6. Filing of Notice of Appeal. The Notice of Appeal, in triplicate, with the required fee, must be submitted to the Immigration and Naturalization Service office where the case is pending. The Notice of Appeal is not to be forwarded directly to the Board of Immigration Appeals.

4. * Briefly, the reasons for this appeal are:

1. The hearing officer erred in holding that the Superior Court of the County of Los Angeles was without jurisdiction to effect a finding of guilt of a minor and his probationary order and certifying the minor to the Juvenile Court of the County of Los Angeles (Page 2 of the Opinion of the Special Inquiry Officer).
2. In holding that the minor must establish his "innocence" or produce "evidence" in support of the motion "addressed to the Court that the defendant did not in fact, commit the crime of which he was convicted, which resulted in a miscarriage of justice". (Page 2 of Opinion of the Special Inquiry Officer).
3. The hearing officer erred in finding that the motion and supporting records and documents filed in the Superior Court "cannot therefore be assimilated to a Writ of Coram Nobis for it was not addressed to an area of fact which the motion sought to redress but was addressed solely to a discretionary procedural matter. The issue of guilt was not raised by the motion and is a factual matter." (Page 2 of the Opinion of the Special Inquiry Officer.)
4. The hearing officer erred in finding that Section 1203.3 limits the jurisdiction of the Court to act thereunder extends solely to revocation, modification or change of the terms of the sentence imposed.
5. The hearing officer erred in holding that "the Superior Court was without jurisdiction to enter its Order dated May 25, 1967 for that order was not effecting the sentence but sought to exert a power which the court did not then possess, to wit, change the finding of guilt."
6. The hearing officer erred in holding that the respondent is a deportable alien under the provisions of Section 241(a) (11).
7. The hearing officer erred in failing to terminate the proceedings and discharge the respondent.

DECISION OF THE SPECIAL INQUIRY OFFICER

Respondent is a 19-year-old native of Palestine and a citizen of Jordan. He entered the United States at New York, New York on January 12, 1957, when he was admitted as an immigrant. Respondent is charged herein with being subject to deportation under the provisions of Section 241(a)(11) of the Immigration and Nationality Act on the ground that he at any time has been convicted of a violation of any law or regulation relating to the illicit possession of marijuana in violation of Section 11530 of the Health and Safety Code of the State of California. This charge is denied by the respondent who also denies that he was on October 12, 1966, convicted in the Superior Court of the State of California, for the County of Los Angeles for the offense of unlawful possession of marijuana in violation of Section 11530 of the Health and Safety Code of the State of California.

The record establishes through a certified copy of information, Minutes of October 13, 1966 and Minutes of December 1, 1966 that a criminal action was instituted against the respondent by the filing of an information in the Superior Court of the State of California, for the County of Los Angeles in which the respondent was accused of the crime of violation of Section 11530, Health and Safety Code, committed on or about June 10, 1966, for unlawful possession of marijuana (Count I) and a violation of Section 11531, Health and Safety Code of California committed on the same day, for unlawfully offering to sell, furnish and give away marijuana (Count II). The case was admitted to the court by stipulation on the testimony contained in the transcript of proceedings had at the preliminary hearing and the Superior Court on October 13, 1966 found the respondent guilty as charged as to both counts. On December 1, 1966, the proceedings were suspended and the respondent was granted probation for five years, a condition of which was that he spend the first year in the county jail (Exhibit 2).

On May 25, 1967, a Minute Order was entered in the aforementioned criminal action which states as follows: "Finding of 'Guilty' is vested and defendant is certified to Juvenile (sic) Court. Remanded."

(Exhibit 4). The Government's Trial Attorney objected to the receipt in evidence of this latest court order on the ground that the Superior Court was without any authority to enter it and it therefore constitutes an invalid order. Respondent's counsel has represented that, pursuant to the aforementioned certification, the Juvenile Court has accepted jurisdiction of the matter.

Article VI, Section 5, Constitution of California provides that "The superior courts shall have original jurisdiction in all criminal cases amounting to felony and cases of misdemeanor not otherwise provided for." Section 737 of the Penal Code of California provides that "All public offenses triable in the superior court must be prosecuted therein by indictment or information, except as provided in the Government Code, the Juvenile Court Law and Section 859a of this code." Section 734 of the California Penal Code provides that "Where an offense is within the jurisdiction of two or more courts, a conviction or acquittal thereof in one court is a bar to a prosecution therefor in another."

The present Juvenile Court Law is found in the Welfare and Institutions Code of California, Sections 550, et seq. Section 602 thereof provides as follows:

"Any person under the age of 21 years who violates any law of this State or of the United States or any ordinance of any city or county of this State defining crime or who, after having been found by the Juvenile Court to be a person described by Section 601, fails to obey any lawful order of the Juvenile court, is within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court, which may adjudge such person to be a ward of the court."

The Superior Court exercises the jurisdiction of the juvenile court and while sitting as such is known as the juvenile court (Sec. 550).

W and I Code). No criminal offense charged against a person under the age of 18 years at the time of the alleged commission thereof shall be tried by my court "unless the matter has first been certified to the juvenile court by petition as provided in Article 7 (commencing with Section 630), and said juvenile court has made an order directing that such person be prosecuted under the general law. (Section 603, W and I Code). This respondent was born on [REDACTED] and accordingly, was not under the age of 18 years at the time of the alleged commission, on June 10, 1965, of the aforementioned offenses. The respondent did not, therefore, come under the mandatory certification to the juvenile court provisions of Section 604(a) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

Section 604(b), Welfare and Institutions Code of California, provides as follows:

"(b) Whenever a case is pending in my court upon an accusatory pleading and it appears to the satisfaction of the judge that the person charged is under the age of 21 years, the judge may certify the case to the juvenile court of his county in manner prescribed by subdivision (a) of this section." (emphasis supplied)

Section 604(c) of the Welfare and Institutions Code of California provides as follows:

"(c) When a court certifies a case to the juvenile court pursuant to subdivision (a) or subdivision (b), it shall be deemed that jeopardy has not attached by reason of the proceedings prior to certification, but the court may not resume proceedings, nor may a new proceeding under the general law be commenced in any court with respect to the same matter unless the juvenile court has found that the minor is not a fit subject for consideration under Juvenile Court Law and has ordered that prosecution under the general law resume or be discontinued."

The problem in this case is what effect, if any, was had upon the judgment of conviction entered on October 13, 1966 (Exhibit 3) by the Minute Order entered by another judge of the same Superior Court on May 25, 1967 waiving the finding of "guilty" and certifying the case to the Juvenile Court, presumably under the provisions of Section 606(b), Welfare and Institutions Code. (Exhibit 4). The said section permits the discretionary certification to the juvenile court "wherever a case is pending in any court." (emphasis supplied). The record indicates that the criminal case against the respondent was not "pending" on May 25, 1967 but appears to have become a final judgment upon the expiration of 10 days after the rendition of the judgment, aforementioned, on October 13, 1966 without notice of appeal having been filed therein, as provided by Rule 31, Judicial Council (California Penal Code, Section 1247c).

The California Evidence Code provides the following rebuttable presumption:

"Section 665. Judicial Action / lawful exercise of jurisdiction. Any court of this state or the United States, or any court of general jurisdiction in any other state or nation, or any judge of such a court, acting as such, is presumed to have acted in the lawful exercise of its jurisdiction. This presumption applies only when the act of the court or judge is under collateral attack."

The question of whether a court has jurisdiction to make an order may be raised in any forum (Matter of H., 9 Cal. Dec. 460, Board of Immigration Appeals, 1961). Prior to the enactment of the California Evidence Code, effective January 1, 1967, it was held in one California case that a void order or judgment is subject to collateral attack at any time and in any place by any interested party. (Garrison v. Carter, 1957, 143 C. A. 2d 846, 307 P. 2d 600). Even prior to the enactment of section 666, California Evidence Code, aforementioned, the Board of Immigration Appeals held that lack of judicial jurisdiction by a court must be affirmatively established by the Service. (Matter of O'Callahan, 1963, 10 I&N Dec. 320). Section 242(b)(4) (U.S.C. 1252(b)(4)) requires that "no decision of deportability shall be valid unless it is based upon reasonable, substantial, and probative evidence."

It is well settled that the sentence in a criminal case is a final judgment of conviction (i.e. Matter of T., 6 I&N Dec. 835). The aforesaid Minete Order of May 25, 1967 (Exhibit 4) does not recite any section of law or other authority for its exercise. It does not appear to constitute the granting of a writ of writ of error coram nobis or the granting of a motion to set aside the judgment within the period of time permitted for such a motion. There is no provision known to us in California law which permits the vacating of a final judgment of conviction more than 6 months thereafter, with no intervening appeal, writ of writ of error coram nobis or motion to set aside the judgment. It must be and is concluded that the Minete Order of the Superior Court entered on May 25, 1967, aforementioned, was entered when the proceedings herein were no longer "pending", therefore, entered without jurisdiction over the subject matter and of no force or effect. The respondent's motion for termination of these proceedings must and will be denied.

The allegations of fact and charge of deportability contained in the Order to Show Cause herein are hereby adopted by me as my findings of fact and conclusion of law.

In view of the recency of respondent's conviction, on which he is still confined and serving the aforementioned term of probation, it is concluded that the respondent is ineligible for any form of discretionary relief from deportation. His deportation must and will be ordered.

ORDER: IT IS ORDERED that the respondent's application for termination of these proceedings be and it is hereby denied.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the respondent be deported from the United States to Jordan on the charge contained in the Order to Show Cause.

DECLARATION OF THE SPECIAL INQUIRY OFFICER

UPON RECONSIDERATION

The facts of this case are fully set forth in the decision entered herein on July 31, 1967, and do not now require repetition. Respondent now seeks, by his motion dated July 24, 1967, to have the aforementioned decision vacated and set aside and the finding of deportability therein reconsidered, presumably for termination of these proceedings. In support of the present motion, the respondent has submitted copies of the papers filed with the Superior Court in support of the Minute Order of that Court.

Dated May 25, 1967 (Exhibit 4) in which the court stated that the finding of "Guilty" in the criminal proceedings was waived and the defendant (Respondent) was certified to the Juvenile Court.

In his present motion, respondent's counsel states that his application in support of the motion to vacate and the motion itself are in the nature of a writ of cum nolis. Close study of the documentation dated April 17, 1967 in support of the motion to modify terms of probation and sentence, vacate finding of guilt, and certify the defendant (respondent) to the Juvenile Court discloses that nowhere therein is there any assertion of the innocence of the defendant nor is there any other evidence attached to the motion addressed to the court that the defendant did not in fact commit the crime of which he was convicted which resulted in a miscarriage of justice. The said action in the criminal proceedings cannot therefore be assimilated to a writ of cum nolis for it was not addressed to an error of fact, which the motion sought to redress, but was addressed solely to a discretionary procedural matter. The issue of guilt was not raised by the motion as a factual matter.

In the instant motion, respondent's counsel correctly points out (pp. page 7) that California courts retain authority at any time during the time of probation to revoke, modify or change an order of suspension of imposition or execution of sentence (Calif. Penal Code, Section 1203.3). It is clear from the language of Section 1203.3 that jurisdiction of the court to act thereunder extends solely to the revocation, modification or change of the terms of sentence imposed.

and got the finding of guilt.

The Order to Show Cause herein was issued on January 11, 1967 upon the basis of respondent's conviction on October 13, 1966 in the Superior Court. The motion to the Superior Court for withdrawal of the finding of guilty and modification of the time of probation and sentence and certification to the Juvenile Court was prepared on April 17, 1967. The Superior Court acted upon the said motion on May 25, 1967, as aforementioned (Exhibit 4). Respondent's present motion attaches a copy of a petition executed on July 13, 1967 by the probation officer and order dated July 14, 1967 of the Probate of Juvenile Court ordering to establish the pendency of an action in the latter, that is, Juvenile Court. The said petition and order add nothing to the Superior Court's Minute Order dated May 25, 1967 (Exhibit 4) in fact, the said Minute Order was invalid for lack of jurisdiction of the Superior Court to suspend and set aside the finding of guilty entered on October 13, 1966 (Exhibit 2). It is concluded that the Superior Court was without jurisdiction to enter its order dated May 25, 1967 for that order was not affecting the sentence but sought to exert a power which the court did not then possess, to wit, change the finding of guilty.

Following its finding of "guilty" on October 13, 1966, the Superior Court on December 1, 1966, ordered that the proceedings be suspended and respondent was granted probation for five years, a condition of which was that he spend the first year in the county jail. It has been held both administratively and judicially that the judge ment of a California court, after a hearing of public, that the proceedings be suspended and probation granted, constitutes a "vacation" within the meaning of Section 241(a)(11) of the Immigration and Nationality Act. Order of An Ho, 4 I&N Dec. 439, Attorney General, 1959; Asuncion-Plaza vs Secretary, 9 Cir. 1961, 282 F. 2d 667, cert. denied 362 U. S. 921, 1960).

After careful consideration and upon review of the entire record of these proceedings and the matters set forth in respondent's petition for vacation to vacate decision, including the exhibits attached thereto, and of the Trial Attorney's brief dated August 13, 1967, it is concluded that respondent's motion should be denied and that no change should be made in the decision heretofore entered on July 11, 1967.

ORDER: IT IS ORDERED that the respondent's motion dated July 24, 1967, to vacate and set aside the decision dated July 11, 1967, be, and the same is hereby, denied.
