SG1J Dear Ms. Humphrey and

I am pleased the information provided to you during your recent visit proved to be useful. With regard to your request for information about our past experiments, we are interested in maintaining awareness of progress in your research investigations and are happy to share our previous experiences with you.

Accordingly, I am enclosing a copy of one requested report, "An Analysis of a Remote-Viewing Experiment of URDF-3 by (Las Alamos, December 5, 1975.) This largely negative analysis does, nevertheless, provide considerable background on the experimental protocol and copies on some of the primary data.

SG1I

The other data you requested is no longer available to me. Without considerable effort, I cannot determine if these data were destroyed or if they reside somewhere in archives. Hence, I am declining further efforts to locate the remaining data.

I hope you find the enclosed report useful. I would be happy to answer additional questions and review your program at a later date.

Sincerely,

SG1I
