Site is a low grey building with small thick opaque windows ^{and of varying component on one end}. Inside the building is cool and dark, but artificially lighted.
Some light bulbs covered with wire screening.
The walls are paneled metal. People in this building are wearing belted grey coveralls, but one is driving a small motorized vehicle with a wheeled pallet attached.
Cylindrical blunt nose metal chassis ^{is} stuck on the pallet.

The inside of these canisters ^{like paper} contains a jumble of wires. Their destination is the hold of a ship and they are loaded by mesh netting and crane.

in military dress - BDV-type, who are gathered around a barbelled wagon.
