1. (S/NF/SK) Tasking: See original tasking data sheet, attached. No other instructions received.

2. (S/NF/SK) Session: Began with a review of source's last session (1 April 87) and a discussion of possible avenues of approach to the as yet unanswered question of what the "large structure" is all about. Monitor suggested that source consider earlier-perceived, target-associated concepts of "opaque" and "self-contained" and to allow some freedom of movement in time. Source decided to begin in S4 with the self-cue of "structure". Monitor has a high level of confidence with regard to this session. [Note: Interestingly, at one point in the session both source and monitor had the same thought regarding this site, to wit: "What ever happened to the simple scientific-technical facility " (Source) and "These kinds of things are starting to become out of our ball park" (Monitor)].

3. (S/NF/SK) Summary: A solid, oddly-shaped geometric (see source sketch) object is located inside the structure. There is a pulsing, greenish light/energy associated with it. A high-frequency hum is present nearby. The object is somehow involved with the idea (process) of attracting something like "particles" (AOL-"fairy dust") from outside the large structure, which seems to cause the associated pulsing and warm, iridescent green light/energy. These "particles" seem to originate from space.

4. (S/NF/SK) Feedback: None provided source.

Source of the particles is outside structure - there's like a "Aa-" means of these coming from above. It is do through the structure has been placed to collect this.

Structure contains a solid geometric object which collects ^{or attracts} particle-like "dust" from a very distant dark source away from the earth and converts it into a pulsing iridescent green wave energy. There is no sense of people associated with the object. present.
