SUMMARY OF INFORMATION

Site is a large, "metal and glass," multi-story (>4 stories) hotel. There is a white path that angles toward the building then is straight across the front entrance of the building then angles away from the building. Could not tell if the building was also of this shape or whether just the path was. At ground level there is a predominance of the color white and many dark green, well manicured trees, shrubs and plants. Many of the plants/shrubs are in white holders. The upper levels of the structure reflect light.

The majority of the people here are business people. Almost all made arrangements to stay here ahead of time.

There is a sidewalk cafe close by. many people are eating at the cafe. The cafe is frequented by a group of established clients.
