SUMMARY OF INFORMATION

The activity of intelligence interest is the replacement of a vehicle (wings) up and beyond what has already been in existence. It is sublime, hyper^(above), linear, extensive, and powerful.

Guidelines, plans, and procedures to modify this system are in effect. The equipment includes an antennae system (navigational) driving machinery around, aircraft, and crystalline substances.

* The site is a work store environment (lake post). Personnel with clearances are present who are backlogged in their work (lunar device). Timing is important because several countries are involved. The process of transformation and volume is expensive and takes time. The objective of the emerging system is to see the world after the upcoming operation. Sketches are attached.

Visualization is important and relates directly to the activity
