1. (S/STD/NF) On 23 and 24 May 1990, four remote viewing sessions were conducted against a target vessel identified as the [REDACTED]. The target vessel reportedly left Miami, Florida en-route to the Bahamas, possibly with contraband, in the form of drugs, aboard ship. Remote viewers were tasked to determine its current location, the nature of the illegal drugs aboard ship, and the destination of the drugs.
  2. (S/STD/NF) Viewer 018 perceived the vessel's current location to be at 2318N/7757W. Illegal drugs appeared to be present in the storage/cargo area. The concept of "cabinetry" was associated with the storage of the drugs. The vessel was en-route to a port area, not further identified. The crew did not appear to be armed.
  3. (S/STD/NF) Viewer 079 perceived the vessel's current location at geographical coordinates 2240N/7530W. Viewer 079 anticipated that a related activity, not further defined, would take place by 28 May 1990 at geographical location 2500N/7700W.
  4. (S/STD/NF) Viewer 025 located the target vessel at 2200N/7500W. The illegal drugs appeared destined for Naples, Florida. The drugs seemed to be stored in the stern portion of the vessel. Crew members of the [REDACTED] were armed.
  5. (S/STD/NF) Viewers appear to be in agreement on the general and current location of the target vessel. Detailed responses to other tasking is lacking. There was insufficient time to obtain additional details; however, additional data may be obtained in ensuing sessions if desired. A copy of a map indicating the locational findings by the viewers is attached to this report.
