REF SUN STREAK Project 9002-C (U)

1. (S/STD) RV 003. This individual appeared to have a "better feel" for the area of concern though no specific match-ups could be found. But again, this general information could have been obtained from media reporting.

a. (S/STD) The area periodically has dense vegetation on rolling hills that surround a man made reservoir.

b. (S/STD) No "water tower" is present in this area although RV 003 may be visualizing the water slide present at [redacted] probable residence. SG1A

c. (S/STD) RV 018. RV 018 perception of a "principal structure" (REF B) describes numerous structures in the [redacted] area. SG1A

d. (S/STD) RV 025. RV 025 mentions an "isolated shed," there are isolated sheds at every house in the area.

25.

e. (S/STD) RV 025. RV 025 "feeling of isolation and abandonment surrounding the target area" is somewhat true. House compounds are generally separated from adjacent residences and most times are placed at the end of peninsulas. Further abandonment may reflect the fact that the drug kingpins are probably seldom in this area due to recent raids by Colombian Police. In a resort area of the type, "isolated areas" might be expected because the owners want exclusiveness and privacy.

f. (S/STD) "Initially, the drugs are transported by land and then by air." No comment - general knowledge.

g. (S/STD) "Water at foot of the hill... structure located" is a true statement.

79 x 003

h. (S/STD) No specific match-up with drawing was found. A picture of the closest match is attached.

2. (U) OVERALL CONCLUSION

a. (S/STD) Several of the viewers statements are true, however, many of the matches were from common knowledge items that one could expect to find in Latin America or exclusive areas, particularly with the unlimited resources available to drug kingpins.
