- E. SESSION SUMMARY:

The target personality has black hair, dark skin, and brown eyes. He has a thin physique. He is currently located in a fairly cold climate which is at a land/water interface. A high rise apartment building is at the site. The individual is in associated with a small group of people. This group markets illegal devices and consists of mostly men to include one woman.

The target personality is currently in trouble. He is struggling because a past event has forced him away from his original location. He is worried, stressed, and hurt. If this individual is not already dead, death is imminent. The purpose, at this point, is to save the individual from harm. Two locations were a result of this session. Newfoundland, Canada or Algiers, Algeria.
