SG1A

The target personality has been forced to change his location recently and will probably travel in the future. Where he has been could become a focus again. He has been in [redacted] territory. Mountains are located in this regional area. Iraq is changeable now. This individual could be found in libyan territories in the future or farther east in Syria and Iraq, but not in Saudi Arabia. He likes to stay in counties which share the same issues of threat and prefers to be near water in areas. The location determined as a result of this session is Latakia, Syria at 35 degrees North and forty minutes, 35 degrees East and forty minutes.

Ground transportation is required in traveleing or crossing over the border into Iraq. Iraq will become a more industrialized country.

SG1A

[redacted] is a name which signals or communicates directly acts of a suspicious nature. Thus, giving a "heads up" of activities to occur.

SG1A

[redacted] is in the most southern regions of Iraq. [redacted] was used for military use (watching and listening). There is hardware located in this region where activity occurs.

What is produced here can be harmful to people. The activity planned is secretive weaponry, using materials which produce objects/devices and the testing of these devices.
