- E. SESSION SUMMARY:

The target vessel is currently located at estimated geographical coordinates 15 N / 78 W. The vessel is currently at its halfway point between its last port of call and its destination. It is currently sailing on an easterly course towards the Windward Passage and Puerto Rico. The target vessel is not carrying a significant amount of illegal drugs. However, a small amount of drugs is stored in orange metal containers located in the aft portion of the vessel. The word "Luck" surfaced phonetically to help identify the vessel. Its name is comprised of a two-word expression such as "Lady Luck/Lucky Nestle."
