E. SESSION SUMMARY:

The target vessel is slowly sailing on a northwesterly course towards the coast of Mexico. The vessel will off-load contraband in the form of narcotics in about a week (about 23 June) at geographical coordinates 15 to 18 N/103 West.

The word "Windfall" surfaced phonetically in association with the off-loading. "Windfall" appears to stand for some form assistance that will facilitate the off-loading activity. [The meaning of Windfall was not further described].

The vessel's activities appear to remain dependent upon instructions being received by wireless. The expression Johnny Red/Jolly Red surfaced to describe the call sign used.

The vessel's contraband consists of cocaine.
