An attempt will be made this Tuesday (suspected plans are for evening hours) at approximate coordinates 2000N/6935W. If this air drop is aborted, plans are to try again the following Tuesday at approximate coordinates 1910N/6515W. There was an added perception that the operation will be coordinated and run by a grey-haired, very dark skinned man on the boat, who is possibly the brother of the pilot.
