SUMMARY OF INFORMATION

The site has tall grasslands which are far and wide, water, and beautiful sunsets. A barn shaped white structure is present. People are here who gather in a crowd close together in a circular area (festive). A flag is present (American or brown and yellow). A black top is also here. The area is a country site wherein things are grown. Cultivation. A private culture. The people are different and somehow put together in a group. Folk dancing. Phonetics: ISH. A young girl with brown hair and a pink veil on her head is here. The activity is air related and includes lifting, rotation, and flying movements. The people are not quite nomadic because they are now settled. However, they came from different native areas and then settled here. The remains of a brick structure, has steps and a pole with a round portion on top.
