SUMMARY OF INFORMATION

The site is a land and structure interface. The main structure is in the outlying area of a city up on a hill. This structure looks similar to a southern church. It has a white door and a gray roof with a steeple and bell tower (see sketches on pages 1, 3 and 5). A large object (weight) is hanging from top posts by chains (page 4). It is either early morning or evening where the sky is hazy with a white light. On the inside of the structure, there is a very steep and narrow staircase with corridors, a basement area and small rooms (page 2 sketch). The predominant colors are brown and white with wooden doors and some basic furniture. The purpose of this structure is for people who belong to a particular sect. They are searching and moving upwards. People come here and stay to get in touch with themselves. It is considered a sanctuary for some and life's work. Dedication and fulfillment in giving of one's self for others is the focus. A foreign woman^a is present who is in her 40's with curly hair, a round face, and a brown/red cloth on her head (veil). She makes the best of her situation and comes to this place for solitude and refuge. She has come to this structure to seek out knowledge from those that are there, so that she can help herself and others. Men are also present and dressed in black and white. These men are serious about conducting and maintaining this organization. They have meetings and plan within this structure in group gatherings. These people have quiet time for inner growth and have a decided value system or set of beliefs. I cannot make out any particular religion, but it is a sect / group affiliation with a definite mission regarding law and order.
