

SRV
Ft Meade
3 SEP 87

SUBJECT: Results of SRV sessions for week of 31 August - 4 September, 1987.

1. TARGET: The target was to describe the picture on the cover of the 14 September 87 issue of Newsweek Magazine.
2. SESSIONS: Results presented here contain material gained from all sessions.
3. RESULTS: There is a strong impression that the cover picture will consist of "parts" placed together in a way that they are not normally found. The cover will be in color, but there is the impres There is a definite and recurring feeling that the White House (or some columned building which looks like it and serves the same purpose) may be one of the integral "parts" of the picture. There are also recurent feelings of Arab influence, and planes in the sky.
4. Author's CRITIQUE: Am not certain how much, but am quite certain that there is quite a bit of AOL throughout.
