SRV ENVELOPE 18 JUNE 1987

[REDACTED]

Site involves a person standing before a group of other people and exhibiting something to them. Object is heavy, rounded, relatively large, has hollow portions, and has some sort of official or governmental significance. Person holding it has some responsibility for it. He is dressed in a sports coat or similar overgarment. He is slightly overweight, perhaps balding, and wears glasses; he had a round face. He is in some way responsible for the object or has some connection with it, but not too intimately. He is also someone with some standing in whatever area he is involved with: people take him relatively seriously.
