More people die this week for the humanitarian effort in Somalia.

Productive last decisions are made in the white house by President Bush with regard to foreign policy etc... the first week in January.

No major flooding will occur in the U.S. during this period.

Many of the trends including dress and social style discovered in 1992 will carry over into 1993 with an emphasis on helath issues.
More people will be having children which will be reminiscent of the days of the baby boom.
