E. SESSION SUMMARY:

There is a roll-up window blinds-like object associated with one of the coffins. One of the individuals has a small, cone-shaped or bell-shaped object on a chain; like a like bell.
 -There is gold foil or gold leaf decorations within one of the coffins.
 -There is a piece of folded fabric; it looks like folded-up towels.
 -There is a lion's face or head on something.
 -An object which appears as an unfolded book or picture frame is standing up on end.
 -The woman is wearing a necklace with green or blue jewels; there maybe some pearls mixed in.
 -The man is wearing a dark green coat which is turning brown; also white stockings with a pattern along the outside.
 -One of the coffins contains either flowers or leaves which were placed in just prior to closing.
 -There is a small heart shaped container with a leaf motif on the front. It is silver or crystal (see diagram).
 -There is a strong presence of "soap-like" substances.
 -One of the individuals/coffins contained an infectious disease.
 -The man is wearing a medallion or medal; it is a sign of aristocracy and has the King's portrait on it.
 -The man is lying on a special layer of fabric or paper; some of the paper contains music or poetry on it.
 -There is something wrong with one of his hands; an injury; he is missing a finger section or has a large abrasion.

2)

- He has something in his mouth and his hand; maybe a coin or a locket of hair. The latter is from a little girl.
- The clothing is remarkably intact; the velvet texture of the coat is still intact.
- The satin or silk lapel or border is decayed and brittle.
- The woman has lots of wavy, red hair.
- Her right thigh has either an injury, a birthmark or some other malady on it.
- Something she is wearing has an elaborate pattern made of beads; maybe her shoes

- Small heart shaped container w/ leaf motif on front.
