E. SESSION SUMMARY:

----Sweden and Denmark have been involved in highly questionable financial transactions through the misuse of government funds. The king of Sweden is particularly singled out in this venture. As a result of this scandal, the value of the (Japanese) yen will depreciate considerably.

----Activities in Bolivia include political upheavals as a result of economic strife that could readily result in an internal political coup. Moreover, volcanic eruptions appear imminent.

----In Columbia there is a movement on within existing (drug) cartel(s) to replace the old guard with new, younger members who will organize themselves along the lines of a modern mafia. Hit-and-run assassinations will become a common occurrence.

----The name "Struttles" surfaced phonetically to in reference to an ongoing money-laundering scheme in Panama.
