E. SESSION SUMMARY:

Summary of Information

The target has a metropolitan feeling to it. There is a centrally located object which is circular and/or domed shaped. There is a sensation of motion or movement. This movement slants up at an angle and then suddenly drops off at one end. There is the concept of a "multi-chambered tube". It lies horizontally and has wet, dripping and green associated with it.

There is a peculiar "lost feeling" associated with this target. This portion of the site gives one the sense(s) of being lonely, dark, disoriented, stumbling, cold, wet, shivering and the occurrence of loud, unpredictable sounds.

There are "hard" corners and angles and "concrete pipes". One individual is worried about being "gone" while they are walking. There is a scene that is reminiscent of "a street scene in India" with all of its hot and repressive characteristics.
