E. SESSION SUMMARY:

A nutrition concern over red meat steaks will be discussed this week. There is an element humans are giving to some cows that the cows are ingesting which makes the meat bad or poor for us to eat. This news will hurt the industry further giving red meat even a lower price for awhile.

A woman with blond hair and brown eyes is family to a famous and semi-wealthy man who will die suddenly by surprise. Family and friends attend the funeral wherein the coffin is shown and charitable contributions are made.

Spring time flowers will be an issue this week, in particular yellow daffodils.
