- E. SESSION SUMMARY:

There is an action being taken, a movement for new political control and power in the offering which is bright and optimistic for future prosperity and peace. It is concerning international relations. These communions or meetings as an end result, will put people in a stronger financial position wherein individual countries are still able to maintain peace as well as power.

This is a current action to happen before the march time frame and it is not a solo effort. Groups interact over the political struggles for disarmament and world peace. This effort is victorious and the decision arrived at does not by force restrict or confine any one party alone. It is a joint effort to combine interests. Monetary gain is achieved yet with it is a message of independent declaration of the countries involved. This is a solution to warfare and some unneeded weaponry. In april we will see the affect of our new liaison which is in both the interests of the U.S. and the new found Soviet Union regions.
