SG1A

- Additional tasking received from JIATF-West. Four projects were tasked. Feedback received on three of the four projects. Project targets were personalities involved in illegal drug trade. Customer feedback assessed the accuracy of the data provided and the value of that information to the customer, Feedback also included a written analysis to support the numerical results. With regard to the accuracy of the info provided by our three Activity sources, the scores ranged from a score of 1 (TRUE) to a 3 (POSSIBLY TRUE) with the mid-range being a 2 (MAYBE TRUE). With regard to the value of the info to the customer, the scores ranged from a score of 3 (OF VALUE) to a 5 (NO VALUE) with a mid-range score of 3 (OF VALUE) for all three projects. Evaluation scoring is IAW DIAM 58-13 (HUMINT). Evaluations were conducted by senior analysts and the data provided is used to enhance data base holdings and to task other INTs for additional data.
- Two in-house proficiency enhancements projects were also conducted in order to enhance and maintain skill proficiency.

SG1I

- April 95: [redacted] CIA independent contractor, reviewed an annotated the PAX-TA bibliography of documents that was prepared by [redacted] with the assistance of [redacted]. Data will be used for documents to be forwarded to the "Blue Ribbon" panel for their review and preparation of the final report. [redacted] reports directly to [redacted] [redacted] CIA designated Project STAR GATE program manager. [redacted] is the Activity POC for this action. Our goal is to have all Activity documents transferred to ORD/CIA NLT mid-June 95.

- Draft background paper for DR provided to Chief, PAX for his review regarding a CIA request to declassify DIA sponsorship of Project STAR GATE to include, where possible, published reports and findings. Approval of the CIA request from the Chief, ORD could facilitate the efforts of the CIA designated "Blue Ribbon" panel and the efforts of the DCI Declassification Committee. As a result of a 5 May meeting with CS on this issue (at the request of Chief, PAX), memo redone to state that declassification of programs sponsorship rests with CIA effective 1 July 95.

SG1J

- 18 April 95: [REDACTED] note on Project STAR GATE highlights regarding the program transfer, the transfer of documents, and operations forwarded to PAX, PA and PC-D for information.
- 21 April 95: Unsolicited information passed by ORD/CIA to this Activity for input into the "system." Info provided was with regard to the Oklahoma City Bombing. Data was provided by Dr. Ed May, SAIC, (our former contractor) to CIA. Info was generated by a former member of this Activity who was under contract to SAIC. Info passed to PGT-1 for action and to Chief, PAX, for info. No feedback as to data provided.

7. (S/NF/SG/LIMDIS) Future Highlights:
