SUBJECT: Document Declassification Review Procedures (U)

References: a. DIAR 50-2, subject: Information Security Program, dated 15 July 1994.

b. Joint review of the Cognitive Sciences Laboratory's (CSL) DoD associated classified documents relative to Project STAR GATE, Menlo Park, CA, 15-16 March 1994.

1. (S/NF) As background and IAW Chapter 3, Declassification and Downgrading Authority, the Chief, Technology Assessment and Support Activity is designated as the original classification authority for approving recommendations to declassify documents that were created under a DoD contract to support Project STAR GATE and its project predecessors which are currently in the possession of the Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC) and the CSL.
2. (U) The documents approved for declassification will be remarked IAW instruction contained in Chapter 4, Marking Classified Material. See enclosure one for a copy of the instructions.
3. (S/NF) Also, and as discussed, the Director of the CSL will review and recommend for downgrading research issues contained in the documents that are subject to the contract. Key caveats would include but are not limited to all data relative to source, target, and references to current and/or potential applications and DoD sponsorship.
4. (U) Upon receipt of the data recommended for declassification, a review of the recommendations and the document will be made and an expeditious reply will be provided
