Ref: a. DoD Regulation 5200.1-R, "Information Security Program Regulation," June 1986.

b. DoD Directive 5205.7, "Special Access Program Policy," 4 January 1989.

1. On 23 October 1990, the Defense Intelligence Agency terminated the Special Access Program (SAP) SUN STREAK.

2. Classified information formerly protected under SUN STREAK will be handled for at least one year in accordance with limited dissemination (LIMDIS) procedures contained in reference a. Paragraph 7-211, LIMDIS (Reference a) is provided to assist your office with these procedures (Enclosure 1). The following will be considered when initiating the SUN STREAK termination.

a. Nicknames and Codewords.

✓(1) All nicknames and codewords associated with the SUN STREAK SAP will be deactivated.

✓(2) A new, unclassified nickname for the LIMDIS protected information will be requested from the Security Policy Branch (OSC-4B).

(3) OSC-PDO will be provided with the new nickname and a brief unclassified description.

✓b. Top Secret Information. All Top Secret information will be controlled in accordance with current DIA information security regulations. A complete inventory of these documents should be provided to the DIA Top Secret Control Officer (TSCO) as soon as possible. If former Top Secret SAP material is to be destroyed, it must first be brought under formal TSCO control and a Certificate of Destruction maintained with the record of access.
