- E. INFORMATION:

The target consists of a vessel that has been suspected of carrying contraband in the form of illegal drugs in the past. This vessel is currently sailing in a northern direction from its destination and will reach its port of call within the next seven to ten days. The vessel can be considered medium to small.

The target vessel may run into difficulty (either mechanical or weather) in the near future that may delay it reaching its' port of call on time.

The vessel may be carrying contraband now. If it is, the contraband is stored in square yellow or tan boxes that can be opened by a key. The boxes of contraband are stored near the front of the ship below deck.

The captain of the vessel is well aware that contraband
