- E. INFORMATION:

The activity consists of a very large vessel that can be considered a freighter. This freighter is dark in color. This vessel is carrying a very large amount of contraband in the form illegal drugs which it has received from the Far East. This vessel is currently sailing north. (See sketch for route of vessel).

This vessel will soon off-load the contraband onto a smaller vessel or smaller vessels that are a little bit bigger than canoes but smaller than a speed boat. The smaller vessel or vessels are white and blue in color. The smaller vessel or vessels will bring the contraband to shore. This off-loading activity will occur at night around midnight. The man driving the smaller boat is small and dark in color.

The contraband is wrapped in plastic bundles. The contraband will then be put onto a very large convoy or truck that will drive south down a highway. The convoy has big white doors in that back. There will be a helicopter that is part of the scenario. A helicopter will be flying to the left of the convoy monitoring it. (It is possible that the helicopter could be carrying law enforcement agents who are monitoring the situation). The convoy will be driving with the contraband during the daytime.

The area where this activity is taking place is very warm and could be a resort area. It is very pretty. The area could be an island.

Also, the number "069" was seen on a side of a light tan wall of a structure.

Geographical coordinates associated with the overall activity or off-loading activity are 12 degrees and 72 to 82 degrees. However, it could not be determined if 12 degrees meant north or south and if 72 to 82 degrees meant east or west. If customer knows approximately where activity is occurring, these coordinates may be of help.
