I felt that I was first outside and I could see a large "X." There were long slender "lines" or "poles" and men were behind or beside these "lines" or "poles." Objects associated with the site were large and slender but one object came up and formed a semi-circle.

Water was near the site. An access road was near the site.

At first I had the feeling that the site was somewhat isolated but that it can get very busy here.
