

SUMMARY OF INFORMATION

There is a sense of natural power associated with the target. There is a revolving, roller-shaped object with smoke or steam associated with it. The colors yellow and green are important and appear soft and fuzzy. There is a radiating glow of sorts that is bright or connected with a bright light. Sometimes there are flashes. There are isolated figures reminiscent of standing cut-out cardboard figures that children play with. There is a hardened softness about the person. They appear grizzled and unkept but friendly and soft none the less. I perceive a frail looking man with large feet, very pale or white skin and he could be healthier. There are sand and water nearby. Has had, or is going to have, an operation or surgery on his throat. The name "TILLY" and "MATILDA" are associated with him. There is the concept of criss-crossed lines containing something (or are used to contain something). There is a stale, rotten smell. There are voices yelling in the background. They are high-pitched and sorrowful; almost like a warning. This person is involved with heavy and rough work. There is unfinished wood nearby. There is large dark printing on a white background. There is music coming from a distance away.
