2. (S-SS) Cuing:

- a. Describe the nature of LTC Higgins' current and immediate surroundings. (See 3.a, below)
- b. Describe the personalities in his immediate surroundings. (See 3.c, below)
- c. Describe the manner in which he is currently dressed. (See 3.b, below)

3. (S-SS) Results:

- a. The site is a structure situated beside a land/water interface (see sketch, page 9). The land is sandy and dry, and the water is stagnant/slimy/heavily mineral laden (AOL: like a large evaporation pool). The entire site gives me the AI of "industry's ugliest destruction of nature". There is some kind of machine in the area which makes a slow "puff-CHUNK!" sound.
- b. Higgins, himself was located inside the structure, dressed in a clean uniform, and pacing angrily about the room. He is filled with impatient anger over the incompetence of the people around him. He is disgusted with the feeling that there is no one in charge, and that nothing is getting done. He is waiting for something.

- c. There appear to be 2 or 3 males around Higgins. They are casually dressed. One has black pants, a black vest, and white dress shirt w/o tie. These people appear to be guarding Higgins. They have no authority to do anything to or for him. They find his anger and impatience humorous, and are very satisfied to see him stew. They despise him. At the same time that they find satisfaction in his angry state, they are not messing with him. They appear to be in charge of Higgins only because the situation puts them into that role. Other than necessary guarding and guiding, they are leaving him strictly alone because of his angry disposition.
