E. SESSION SUMMARY:

The following were perceived during this session:

1. A volcano which has been dormant for a very long time will erupt. It will be in an area that has rarely experienced an eruption and never in recorded history.
2. Something very dramatic or drastic will happen to a male celebrity associated with Hollywood, CA. He is one of the younger stars; maybe in his late 20's to mid 30's.
3. There will be a major terrorist- or criminal-related incident in Detroit, MI. It will occur in a well known building/park complex near a river. The river is moving very fast here. I sense that the event will occur within an open area reminiscent of a large plaza or pedestrian mall.
4. Although I found myself literally on board the next shuttle flight, the shuttle will have to make an emergency landing at a commercial airport within the central U.S. It will be unable to land on either one of the coasts.
5. Felt a sudden, intense deep chill swept through the room which effectively ended this session. It felt as if I had been thrown into a commercial deep freeze/meat locker facility.
