In accordance with the terms of my contract and the requirements of Task A, I have delivered to you a report which includes:

- four (4) annotated bibliographies of Star Gate-related classified and unclassified documentation, i.e., two (2) bibliographies of reports prepared by industry under government contract, a bibliography of documents prepared by the Star Gate Program Office and a bibliography of available program-related documents residing at your facility.
- a classified catalog listing all operational tasking of the program and citing related information regarding the tasking organization and the topic of interest
- an index of a bibliography extracted from a circa-1991 program planning document which identifies the availability of and potential value for subsequent review for each of the 266 listed document.

I believe this deliverable with attachments completes Task A of my contract with your organization and, thereby, request payment in the amount of

Mike:

Draft write-up from my notes at Friday's interview is attached. Much is similar to previous write-up as discussions and results were quite similar. Mike - please note deletion of any reference to any specific organization other than DIA.
