SUBJECT: Clarification of Training Program Memo of 8/7/81

CC:

In response to your request for clarification as to the meaning of Paragraph 5 of the above-cited memo, Paragraph 5 is amended to read as follows:

5. When a successful training program is available, the sponsoring organizations will be invited to propose candidates to be trained. It is understood that these organizations have a priority position for training when it is offered. The exact details (when, where, how many and what type of training) will be determined through negotiation and specified in the FY '83 and subsequent contracts.
